HER MARRIAGE IS PREVENTED 15 YEAR-OLD-GIRL REFUSES TO BECOME A REAL VISCOUNTESS

"He said to me today when my father was here: 'Is it yes or no?' I told him, 'No.' He talked with my father a little while longer, and then said that he would not be seen after two hours. He then left our home."

This is the simple story of the manner in which Mary M. Fisher, aged 15 years, residing with her parents, 1468 Third street, this morning set aside the opportunity of becoming a viscountess of Portugal by determinedly declining the offer of marriage of a man who styles himself "Visconde de Villa Verde," of Portugal, who is a father of two sons in his native land, a widower and forty-five years of age.

MAN HAS HIS USELESS LICENSE.

The little girl's declination becomes all the more interesting by reason of the fact that the visconde had already secured a license to enable the marriage to be solemnized, had fixed on Wednesday of next week as the day for the nuptials, and had even secured the consent of Mary's parents to the union.

But the visconde had reckoned without considering the bride-elect, and as a consequence, he has now in his possession a marriage license which has about as much value as a counterfeit penny.

Whether the visconde intends to shake the dust of Oakland off his shoes for the purpose of forgetting the pretty little girl whose love could not be inspired by soft words, blandishments and far-away titles, is unknown, because he could not be found today by THE TRIBUNE reporter in his quarters in the home of Mrs. Ferris at the southwest corner of Henry and Fifth streets.

Regardless of this fact, however, the bride-elect evinces no sorrow over her lover's disappearance. She gives no indication of suffering from an aching heart. There is not a suggestion of sadness in the lustre of her eyes and not the slightest diminution in the intensity of the ruddy glow in her cheeks. Her ripe red lips are still free for an accepted lover's caresses, and, before this paper will have reached its readers, the child will have forgotten that she has been the heroine of an episode which has many of the elements of romance which enchains the fancy of the young.

"I knew him about a week," said the girl to THE TRIBUNE reporter. "There was no engagement. He gave me no ring. The day after I met him, he gave me a little silver cross, but I gave it back to him the day after, because I did not want to have anything to do with him. I don't know what he meant when he said I wouldn't see him after two hours."

Miss Mary Fisher is a pronounced brunette. She is physically developed beyond her years, but her manner is that of a sensible girl who is still respectful to and dutiful to her parents. Hers is indeed a pretty face, rendered all the more beautiful by a sweetness of disposition, which is written in every lineament. There is little wonder that the Visconde was led captive by her charms.

FATHER'S STORY.

Samuel Fisher, Mary's father, was formerly a restaurateur of this city, but is now retired. He tells the story of his giving consent to the marriage in the following way:

"I have known the Visconde about two months. He spoke about my daughter only a week ago. She never went out with him. He saw her going to church with me. He has been coming to my house only a week. He is of good family. I know that. He is of importance in Portugal. He has been to the war and is well educated. He teaches. If my daughter liked him, I would not care. But he told me he was getting $135 a month, but I know that is not so. He came to my house early this morning to speak about the marriage. I told him to ask Mary and Mary said she would not marry him. He told me I had consented to the marriage, but I told him that I would not force Mary to marry him, and I won't. She is too young and he is too old."

AGED ALAMEDA WOMAN IS DASHED TO DEATH

ALAMEDA, November 2.—Mrs. Ellen Spence, an aged woman employed as a domestic, met with a terrible death this morning about 9:15 o'clock, when she fell from a second story window in the residence of Mrs. Samuel Harris, of 1602 Sherman street, at the corner of Railroad Avenue, and, striking the artificial stone sidewalk, broke her neck. Death was instantaneous.

Mrs. Spence, who was sixty-five years of age, and who lived alone at 1525 Morton street, had been employed for a year past by Mrs. Harris to attend to the household. It was her custom to come to the residence for breakfast and later work about the house.

WORKING ON THE SECOND FLOOR.

This morning she was tidying up a bedroom on the second floor, and was engaged in conversation at the time with Mrs. Harris. It was supposed that she was raising the flower pots from the window, and Mrs. Harris, who was on the other side of the room, had her attention attracted in another direction and continued talking to her.

Finally, when she asked a question and received no answer, she was startled to discover that the woman had apparently disappeared. She had heard a slight crash, but paid no attention to it, and supposed that Mrs. Spence had left the room without her knowledge.

FINDS BODY ON SIDEWALK.

A moment later she discovered by the noise of pedestrians in the street that something had occurred, and looking through the window, was horrified to discover the body of the domestic lying upon the walk.

The accident was due to the giving way of the sash in the window which was known to have been in a bad condition. Mrs. Spence fell about twenty feet, and striking upon her head, was instantly killed.

MAN WITNESSES THE ACCIDENT.

The accident was witnessed by T. F. Steinhilber, who saw the woman give a lurch backward when she threw up her hands, and was precipitated to the ground. Mrs. Harris says that she had warned Mrs. Spence repeatedly to be careful about working about the window, as it was in a bad condition. She says that she had notified the owner of the premises, Charles Moeller, to make the repairs, and that the delay in fixing the window was responsible for the woman's death.

HAD SERIOUS FALL BEFORE.

J. J. Lermen, an attorney of San Francisco, with an office in the Claus Spreckels Building, is a nephew of the deceased. Mrs. Spence was a woman of many misfortunes. About a year ago while working for Mrs. Mancetti, of 1823 Morton street, she fell off the back porch of the residence when the railing gave way, and as a result fractured both her ankles. The remains of the unfortunate woman were taken to the local branch Morgue by Assistant Deputy Coroner Harry Walsh, and an inquest will be held by Coroner Mehrmann.

SHUDDERS WHEN HE IS TOLD OF HORRIBLE CRIME OF MURDER

Man Who Was Nearly Killed Leaves Hospital.

WM. ELLIS GLAD

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—William C. Ellis, one of the central figures in a tragedy, had it been consummated as planned by the murderer, Milton Andrews and his wife, would have been regarded as "the crime of the century," today left the Roosevelt Hospital in Berkeley, and began preparations for his trip to his home in Australia.

"Feeling fine as a fiddle," said William Ellis today, in answer to a query from Marshal Vollmer, as to his physical condition, following a confinement of three weeks in the hospital, with a fractured skull to be operated on by physicians.

His departure was scheduled for today on the steamer Ventura, but after consultation with attorneys, who have been given charge of his interests, Ellis said he might remain three weeks longer, and take the next steamer to Australia, settling up any legal affairs that may require his attention, in the meanwhile.

INNOCENT CHAP.

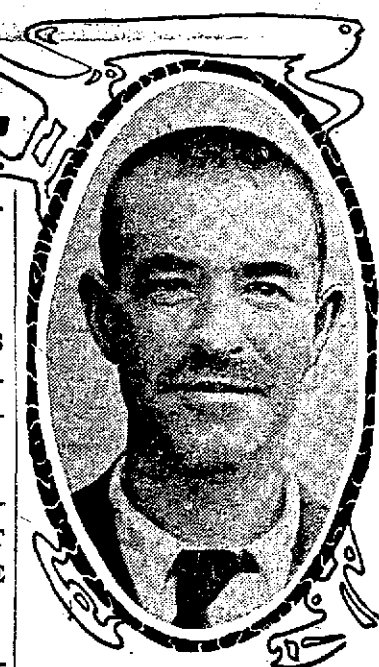

Ellis is a blue-eyed, innocent appearing chap, in spite of his thirty-five years of life on the turf, as jockey, trainer and bookmaker in Australia. He receives with marked surprise each fresh revelation of the extraordinary criminal record of Milton Andrews, who enticed him to America and tried to murder him here, and gives every evidence of being that which he appeared the day when the assault upon him took place—a dupe of an extraordinarily clever criminal, who already had several murders to his discredit for which he was hunted by the police of America, before he brought Ellis from Australia to rob and murder him here.

Ellis shivers and gasps in affright as the story is now told to him, for the first time in extended detail, of Andrews' black record of crime.

With his eyes bulging and his face white, Ellis listened yesterday afternoon to a fresh recital by Detective Shultz of Colorado Springs of crimes that are now laid at Andrews' door in addition to those in which the police have hitherto implicated him.

CRIMINAL HUNT.

Detective Charles I. Shultz of Colorado Springs arrived in Berkeley yesterday to begin a hunt in San Francisco for Andrews and his wife. Shultz gave to Marshal Vollmer particulars regarding Andrews' extraordinary criminal career which have not before been supplied to the authorities here. The recital of this bloody record of Andrews provided Ellis with more food

MRS. AUGUSTA L. MOFFITT MAKES A DENIAL

Mrs. Augusta L. Moffitt, widow of the late Frank J. Moffitt, and executrix of his will, today filed a formal general denial of the claims made by the four sisters of Moffitt in their recent petition to have $40,000 of their brother's estate distributed to the trustees for their benefit as contemplated by the terms of his will.

The estate of Senator Moffitt has never been distributed, being yet in course of probate, but the time of ten months required by law for creditors to appear having expired it is now in order to take further steps. The trustees under the will are Mrs. Augusta L. Moffitt, the widow of decedent; Henry M. Moffitt, a brother, and the Union Trust Company of San Francisco, or any other trust company the court may see fit to name. The four sisters of Senator Moffitt, who seek to have $10,000 set apart for their benefit are Mary, Maggie, Emma and Nellie Moffitt. They ask interest on the $40,000 from November 24, 1904, the time of the death of Moffitt.

The main question to be determined as to the petition, is as to whether the $40,000 is to be invested for the maintenance of the four sisters, and if so interest upon the amount will run from the time of the death of Senator Moffitt. If the $40,000 was simply intended as a legacy to be invested by the trustee, the interest does not run until the legacy reaches the trustees by distribution ordered by the court.

The word maintenance does not appear in Senator Moffitt's will.

Hearing on the matter is set for November 6th before Judge Ogden in Department 6 of the Superior Court.

Hacked to Pieces in the Streets Dead and Wounded Piled Into Carts

LONDON, November 2, 7:06 p. m.—A dispatch to the Evening Standard from Odessa, timed 2:30 today, says: "The city rings with the reports of rifles and revolvers and occasionally a volley is fired. Every house and tenement is bolted and barred."

"The infantry patrols are doing their duty perfunctorily, declining to fire on the mobs until they themselves are attacked."

"The Cossacks are said to have lost over a hundred men by bombs and the city is unsafe for civilians. The casualties yesterday are believed to have amounted to 5,000 killed and wounded."

"In the Jewish quarters bodies still strew the streets and sidewalks."

WOMEN ARE STRANGLED TO DEATH.

"Jewish women and children were strangled and hacked to pieces in the streets where the mobs gained the upper hand."

"The Red Cross doctor tells me that the Kishineff horrors were repeated a hundred fold. The students alone saved the city from wholesale sack and massacre."

The military is now placing a hundred machine guns at various points. Twenty-six carts full of wounded have just passed my door.

"General Kaulbars was called to the balcony of the palace this morning by five thousand loyalists carrying imperial portraits and singing the national hymn. The General earnestly entreated the assemblage to disperse and go home, but with ringing cheers the loyalists resumed marching through the city."

PLAN TO MURDER ALL THE JEWS.

"The sound of firing is again moving westward towards the Jewish quarters. The mobs swear they will not leave a single Jew alive."

ROSTOFF-ON-DON, Russia, November 2.—The whole town today is in the hands of rioters, who are plundering by wholesale. Firing is frequent in the streets. Many persons have been killed or injured. Wounded people are being taken to the hospital every moment. The clergy left the churches in attempts to pacify the rioters, but their efforts have been futile.

PRIESTS CARRYING CROSSES LEAD

WARSAW, November 2.—The restaurants were closed at noon and traffic was stopped. Despite the Governor's proclamation immense patriotic processions gathered in various parts of the city during the afternoon and paraded the streets, headed by Catholic priests carrying crosses and church and national flags. The processions converged towards the monument to the Polish poet, Mickiewicz, where patriotic speeches aroused enthusiasm.

ODESSA TREMBLES WITH ANARCHY

ODESSA, November 2.—Anarchy is rampant here. Killing and plundering by the bands formed of "loyalists" continued this morning. Attacks on the Jews are incessant. The night was made hideous, bodies of "loyalists," with whom the police are fraternizing, marching through the principal streets bearing national flags, portraits of the Emperor and ikons, singing the national hymn, smashing everything in their way and looting shops and houses. Hospital wagons passed through the streets incessantly carrying off the killed, wounded and mutilated. The population is panic stricken.

ORDERS TO SHOOT PEOPLE ARE GIVEN

WARSAW, Russian Poland, November 2, Noon.—It now appears that thirty persons were killed and over a hundred wounded during conflicts here last night.

Instead of the expected abolition of martial law today the military governor had the walls covered with proclamations announcing that in consequence of yesterday's disturbances crowds assembling in the streets will be dispersed by force of arms. The courts and government offices here are closed.

The Social Democrats this afternoon issued a proclamation calling for a revolution. Polish flags were displayed from many balconies and a mass meeting of all political parties assembled at Philharmonic Hall to discuss the situation, while the immense crowds surrounding the building sang patriotic songs and shouted patriotic cries until they were hoarse.

A deputation of prominent citizens visited the Governor-General to protest against yesterday's massacre in front of the city

THE SOCIETY IS INTERESTED IN THIS APPROACHING WEDDING

HARRY LANE.

MISS MABEL REED.

Wedding of Miss Mabel Linden Reed and Harry Lane Will be One of the Events of the Winter.

One of the winter weddings of interest to society on both sides of the bay will be that of Miss Mabel Linden Reed, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George W. Reed of Telegraph Avenue, and Harry Lane, son of Dr. Lane of Los Angeles.

Miss Reed is very popular in society on both sides of the bay, and her wedding will doubtless be an event of the season.

Mr. Lane, who is to wed Miss Reed, was a student at the University of California. Some time in the near future he has planned to go to the Orient, where he will engage in business. While at college he made a careful study of the Chinese language.

TONIGHT IS LAST PERFORMANCE

MILITARY PLAY, "ARIZONA" IS DRAWING CARD AT MAC-DONOUGH.

That beautiful military play, "Arizona" was presented at the Macdonough Theater last night to a crowded house. The cast was admirable and all that could be desired, the entire company making much of their lines so that the story of the army post was brought out in all essential parts of love, duty and chivalry.

The story is a cleverly written account of the love of a young officer for his colonel's sister-in-law and his efforts to prevent the wife of the colonel from going astray is the motive for the dramatic action of the piece.

Clerence Heritage was the stern and realistic colonel while Miss Frances Desmond played a very creditable wife of the officer. Edward Farrell was especially good in his rendition of the young lieutenant. Miss Ava Ladd was a sweet and lovable Bonita. Edward Patterson as the villain, Sergeant Keller as the old German soldier and Miss Corinne Childs and the balance of the company were worthy of more than passing comment.

Arizona plays tonight for the last time.

ELLERY'S BAND.
The immense audience which nightly attended the concerts of the Ellery Band in Chicago the past summer included the very best social and artistic element in the city. Indeed, the impression made on the people outside the Coliseum as the people filed out from one of the Ellery concerts was almost the same as would be received from watching the exit of Chicago's choicest society folk from a performance of grand opera.

The society and musical people of Oakland are evincing unusual interest in the farewell concert to be given by this famous organization tomorrow evening at the Macdonough Theater. In truth, there is every indication that a brilliant and fashionable audience will on this occasion welcome Perillo and his fifty-five eagerly-responsive followers. The following have already signified their intention of being present with large parties of friends: Father Sisson of St. Mary's Cathedral; Mrs. W. E. Sharon, Mrs. Hume, the president of the Ebell society, Mrs. Jones, the president of the Oakland Club, and Arthur Moore, the secretary of the Orpheus Club. Ellery's Band will appear at the Macdonough Theater for one night only, Friday, November 3. Seats now on sale.

'WARE DOGS IN THIS VICINITY

FARMERS ON THE RAMPAGE AND KILLING THEM ON SIGHT.

SEATTLE, Wash., Nov. 2.—Twenty-seven hunting dogs, including deerhounds, setters, etc., have been killed in one week by the ranchers living along Hood's canal. All were valuable. The killing is but the first movement in a campaign planned by the farmers in that section in an effort to protect their rights and save their crops from devastation and ruin.

For some years farmers there have been worried by hunters, who, getting upon the trail of a deer, would chase the animal across farms and through fields regardless of the damage done. They have been warned time and again, but the warnings, even the printed and posted ones, have had little apparent effect.

The farmers held a big meeting two weeks ago to discuss the best ways of preventing hunters from running over their cultivated property, and the above record is the work of the committee appointed at that time.

RAISINS MAKE HOT FIRES

TO TAKE RISKS ABOUT FRESNO.

FRESNO, Nov. 2.—The manager of the California Raisin Growers' Company today received notice from 137 different insurance companies withdrawing their insurance from the packing-houses and fruit now owned by the association. Raisin insurance is regarded as extra hazardous and is divided among several companies for that reason. On October 11th, the Liverpool and London and Globe Company withdrew insurance from the packing-houses in this city, all had their effect on the Underwriters. Whether reinsurance can be obtained by the association is not yet known.

COSTLY STONES A BAIT

To Wear Diamonds, Many Help to Make Few Rich.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Warrants for the arrest of J. W. Baker of 1222 East Twentieth street, Oakland, were sworn out before Judge Morgan yesterday on felony and misdemeanor charges, but the police were unable to locate the man.

Baker, who was formerly Pacific Coast agent for the Preferred Mercantile Company of Boston, a so-called get-rich-quick concern, which is said to have victimized numerous Californians to the extent of $200,000, is charged by Burton P. Gray, receiver for the concern in several States in which it operated, with continuing to collect money from its contract holders after notice of the appointment of receiver had been issued to all agents, and with failure to account to the receiver for the money alleged to have been so collected. In Judge Seawell's court yesterday Gray was appointed receiver for such assets of the concern as may be found in California.

SHINERS ALLURE THEM.
Gray states that the company issued a contract whereby the payment of $1 for 110 weeks entitled the holder to a diamond valued at $200 or $100 in cash. The United States postal authorities have issued a fraud order against the company and its projectors are now in jail. The Supreme Court of Massachusetts has declared its charter against the company null and void. During the fifteen months it operated in Boston it collected $800,000, half of which came from the Pacific Coast States.

The receiver has recovered some $30,000 which had been deposited in various parts of the East. He says that after his appointment many of the agents all over the country kept on collecting from the holders of contracts without his knowledge and that he after them now. He estimates Baker's alleged collections at $30,000. Baker, who had an office in the Parrott building up to October 15, visited Boston in September, according to Gray, and promised to make an accounting.

WITHDRAWS LARGE SUM.
It has been discovered that he withdrew within a few days an account of several thousand dollars that he carried in the name of the Preferred Mercantile Company with a local bank. Attorney H. G. W. Dinkelspiel, who is representing the receiver, is in possession of the names of the holders of the concern, and is probing the matter to the bottom. The company maintained sub-agencies at Los Angeles, Oil Center, Bakersfield, Astoria, Seattle, Vancouver, Oakland, San Jose and Alameda.

It has been incidentally learned that persons involved in previous swindles of this nature are planning to resume business with a new form of contract.

KANSAS SUES TO OUST PULLMAN COMPANY

TOPEKA, Kans., November 2.—Because the Pullman Car Company, a corporation of Illinois with a capital stock of $74,000,000, has not paid to the Treasurer of the State of Kansas a charter fee of $14,000 for the permanent school fund, Attorney General Coleman yesterday afternoon brought quo warranto proceedings against the company, asking by what authority it was doing business in the State.

Coleman asks that the Supreme Court adjudge that the company has no right to do business in this State, that the defendant be ousted from the State and that it be compelled to pay the costs of the proceeding.

This is the second suit of this nature brought by Coleman. The first was brought against the Western Union Telegraph Company.

WOMAN'S RACE WITH DEATH

"I made a race with death and I won," declared Mrs. Marie Zappettini triumphantly today when she arrived from Volcano, Amador county, where she had gone in an automobile to be at the bedside of her dying father, who was supposed to be dying.

"It was a terrible trip, made more horrible by our frequent mishaps," she continued, "but I braved it all and now we are back again and we hope there will be no more trouble. My father was stricken with apoplexy, and at the time they thought he was dying."

The trip Mrs. Zappettini made was a remarkable one. As told on October 5th, she received a message from her family that her father was dying and found that there would be no train for several hours. In despair, she started in search of an automobile, but could not find one until 11 p. m. Mrs. Zappettini, a Fruitvale real estate agent, offered her his machine. Mrs. Zappettini accepted the offer, and by doing so beat the regular train three hours. Her party was delayed seven hours in Stockton. It reached there late at night and had to wait till morning to renew the gasoline supply. The devoted woman was thankful for the three hours' gain.

GYPSY'S CHILD ON SALE

OFFERS TO SELL DAUGHTER TO PROSPECTIVE GROOM FOR $1,000.

CINCINNATI, Nov. 2.—The engagement of Minnie Stankovitch, nineteen, daughter of former Queen Stella Stankovitch, of the Hungarian Gypsy, to George Mitchell, seventeen, a member of the English Gypsy tribe, has been broken.

According to the father of the prospective groom, a price of $550 for the girl was agreed upon, but her father finally decided that she was worth at least $1,000 and demanded that amount.

BARGAINED AT $850. "Chief Stankovitch, father of the girl, and I made a bargain by which Minnie was to become my daughter-in-law in return for $850," said he. "You know we Gypsies buy our wives just as you would horses or cattle," added the disappointed groom. "We made the bargain," continued

CARDINAL GIBBONS CALLS CATHOLICS' ATTENTION

CARDINAL GIBBONS.

Urges Them to Respond to the Call for Funds For the University.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Cardinal Gibbons, Chancellor of the Catholic University of America, in bringing to the attention of the Catholics of this country the annual collection for the support of the university, which will be taken up on the first Sunday after Advent, or on the first convenient Sunday thereafter, reports a very satisfactory condition of the finances of the institution.

In 1903 the amount collected was $105,051, while in 1904 it was $116,239. The receipts of the university from April 1, 1903, to October 1, 1905, were $676,658, including all sums from collections, endowments and sales of property.

In the same time the university has increased its teaching corps, and paid all the ordinary expenses of academic division, disbursed for additional equipment, for improvements in grounds and buildings, $15,398.

On the total indebtedness $16,141 has been paid and there is now no floating debt. The entire debt of the university is now but $50,000, which will be reduced $10,000 December 1.

Cardinal Gibbons says $355,000 has been invested in first-class securities, the income of which is available for defraying current expenses.

"The financial security of the university," he says, "means the security of all that was at stake in the founding and development of the great institution. The honor of the Catholic Church in the United States solemnly pledged to the success of the university has been maintained.

What seemed for a time the gravest of disasters has served, in the providence of God, as a means of providing the invincible devotion of Catholics to their institutions.

the elder man, "and George and Miss Stankovitch were engaged. Shortly afterward Stankovitch came to me and told me he wanted $1,000 for the girl. I refused and the engagement fell through. I did agree to compromise and give him $900 for his daughter."

"No sir," reiterated Mitchell, "that girl may be pretty and fat, but she isn't worth $1,000."

George Mitchell stated that there was no disagreement between either himself or his Gypsy sweetheart, and that each loved the other. It was the fathers who foiled the plans of Cupid and prevented the wedding from taking place in the St. Bernard Roman Catholic Church, as was intended. Both young Mitchell and the girl, true to their nomadic training, are willing to abide by their fathers' decisions, even though they love each other.

USUAL PRICE IS LOWER. The elder Mitchell said that the usual price paid for a wife among the Gypsies was about $750. Eight hundred and fifty dollars is the highest amount ever known to have been paid for a wife.

The Stankovitchs are now near Hamilton, Ohio, and it is hoped that Chief Stankovitch will let his daughter go cheaper when they return to Carthage in three weeks.

According to the Mitchells and other Gypsies, the engagement between George Mitchell and Minnie Stankovitch is the first instance in the history of the Gypsy tribes of the world in which a marriage vow has been violated, and naturally will be the chief topic of gossip among the dark-skinned people over all portions of the United States for weeks to come.

Several days ago it was stated that the young Gypsies were engaged, having fallen in love at first sight at the Carthage Golden Jubilee Fair. The news was hailed with delight by Gypsies from all parts of the country, as it meant union between the Hungarian Gypsies, the race to which Miss Stankovitch belongs, and the English-Irish Gypsies, of which Geo. Mitchell is one—a union of English-Hungarian Gypsies having never before been recorded.

UNION MEETINGS PLANNED

LOCAL COUNCILS HAVE APPOINTED THE NECESSARY COMMITTEES.

The joint meeting of the committees of the C. L. and B. T. Councils appointed at the instance of the Central Labor Council to make arrangements for the coming annual meeting of the State Federation of Labor at Oakland in January, 1906, met at C. L. C. headquarters, Wednesday evening, and chose Geo. W. Soudan, chairman, and C. W. Perry, secretary, and appointed a sub-committee of three—W. E. Perreau, A. C. C. Krueger and F. C. Joslyn—to secure headquarters and a hall for the convention.

President indications are that there will be over 400 delegates to the State Federation, which with their wives and other visitors in connection will make over 1000 in attendance at the convention.

For purposes of uniformity and good order, only such printed matter and data regarding the meeting of the State Federation as comes through the joint committees is to be regarded by unions as official or binding.

At the meeting of the Cooks' and Waiters' Union, Wednesday evening, Martin Gregovich, formerly a member of the Oakland union but affiliated with San Francisco union, and who assisted in the organization of a club of non-union restaurant employees, calculated to be hostile to union labor, in Oakland recently, was fined $50 for such participation.

IN SANTA ROSA. The rupture in the building trades industry of Santa Rosa is in a fair way of settlement. The Builders' Exchange of that city in an effort to settle the pending difficulty between its members and the union carpenters formulated the following proposition and has submitted them to the Santa Rosa Labor Council:

"First—In order to re-establish and maintain a friendly relation between organized labor and the employers, we ask that everybody now on the unfair list be taken off same. The claim that no walking delegate should have the right to walk out or strike, without first consulting with the employers and submitting the matter to a joint committee from both organizations. We maintain that only journeymen belong to the union, and all who take contracts should withdraw from the union. The settlement of the exchange is that we assist the unions to maintain their wages and hours as long as the same are reasonable, but we hold the right to manage our own business affairs. The members of the exchange recognize the union in so far as they have no objection to the employees joining their respective unions, but consider that the matter should be attended to by the unions themselves. The union could best meet and discuss the proposition thoroughly and sent the following reply:

"First—The Santa Rosa Labor Council, in meeting assembled, asserts and reaffirms that organized labor cannot work with non-union labor, except as specified by the rules of the various unions, and it hereby agrees to declare all unfair firms fair provided the Builders' Exchange agrees to have said firms unionize their employees. Future differences to be settled by arbitration committees of both organizations."

ELECTRICAL WORKERS. Vice-President M. J. Sullivan of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers, who has been in Oregon for some weeks, returned last night. He is greatly encouraged over the outlook in the North. He was instrumental in securing the signatures of the management of the Eastern Portland Cement Co. of Portland to a union agreement. This agreement runs for two years and grants union conditions in every particular.

TEAMSTERS. For the purpose of uniting the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, a corporation has been organized by the New York Teamsters' Association. The announcement is made that the International Teamsters' Association has been formed with a capital of $100,000, and the laws of New York and New Jersey are being secured. Secretary of the New York Teamsters' Association states that the new company would amalgamate trucking interests in New York and New Jersey. There was a report that Thomas O'Connell, secretary of the Chicago Teamsters' Association, who is at present in New York, is about to amalgamate the New York and Chicago associations.

L. A. LABEL LEAGUE. The Los Angeles Central Labor Council has taken the suggestion of the local Women's Union Label League to hold a fair at which will be displayed union labels and union label products. It is reported that the league is a great success and will be a great educator and bring more prominently before union labor people the value and one of the union than anything yet devised.

A committee was appointed by the Los Angeles Central Body and will bring in a report on the subject at its next meeting.

WANT THE STREET CUT THROUGH

BUSINESS MEN CONFER WITH THE MAYOR ON IMPROVEMENT.

A conference was held yesterday afternoon at the Mayor's office between Mayor Frank K. Mott, and a committee of the representative property owners and merchants of Washington street to decide upon the best method of opening Washington street through to San Pablo avenue. Mayor Mott was heartily in favor of this improvement and said he would use every effort to insure its success. No definite action was taken in the matter, but the members of the committee decided the next step must be taken as soon as possible.

The members of the committee who convened with Mayor Mott were C. J. Heesman, H. C. Capwell, M. J. Keller, Fred Kahn and Hugo Abrahamson. When seen after the meeting, Mayor Mott said:

"As I have said before, I am personally heartily in favor of the proposition, as I think it would be a great improvement to the city. As to the best method of carrying it out, that remains to be determined by the municipal government and the owners of the property affected. I would be in favor of moving the City Hall to some other location and extending the street straight through to San Pablo avenue."

ATHENS COURT, A. O. F.

Court Athens would like to announce to its many friends that the Court has removed from its old quarters, Peralta and Seventh streets, to Sunset Hall, Seventh and Willow streets. Court Athens is growing to such an extent, that larger and more commodious quarters were necessary. So Sunset Hall was temporarily secured. Until further notice Athens will hold court Wednesday evening instead of Thursday evening. On the evening of the 24th the Ways and Means committee met at the residence of Brother Austin.

Many subjects were spoken upon, namely, the welfare of Athens; change of the court meeting rooms, etc. The business of the evening over, a visit was paid to the dining room where many good things were partaken of from the excellent repast which Mrs. Austin prepared. The members of the committee wish to compliment the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Austin on the mastery way in which the tables were served. A merry hour was thus passed during which many witty remarks were passed to and fro.

The joke of the evening was passed upon Brother's Gurnea, Hager and Mitchell. It happened thus: At the plate of each guest was placed a small box of Turkish cigarettes, with a neat monogram written upon a card attached to the box by a pretty piece of ribbon, many a proud member cast at this neat little treat, that was very thoughtfully placed by the Misses Austin. Brother Gurnea could not finish the banana which he was eating fast enough to suit himself, he was so anxious to partake of a few puffs of those beauties inside the little box, but everything has an ending so had the fruit which Gurnea was eating. He reached over, secured a cigarette, strikes one of those parlor matches, that is large enough to get a whole city afire. Not so to this cigarette. Everybody was busy talking. Gurnea lights another torch, still he could not get a light. Mitchell, all this time, had one in his mouth, with hand extended, waiting for Gurnea to pass him a light. Hager, on the other side of the table, was very busy saving to light a Turkish beauty. At this stage Sheldon could hold in no longer, and a burst of laughter filling the room that could be heard across the street. The Turkish beauties turned out to be a neat imitation that would require an expert to detect from the genuine. Wonder what brand these three brothers will be smoking next.

DAUGHTERS OF ST. GEORGE.

LIBERTY CO., K. OF P.

At the regular weekly assembly of Liberty Co., No. 11, U. R. K. of P., held last Tuesday evening in the Armory, the entire evening was devoted to drilling.

It is very gratifying to note how efficient each sir knight is becoming and the splendid manner in which they all enjoy these well spent evenings.

No. 11 is rapidly getting into splendid form which is really the only result that can be looked for when each sir knight devotes his entire time and attention to all instructions given him.

On last Monday evening an agreeable surprise was tendered Piedmont lodge, No. 172, K. of P., when a delegation from old No. 31 appeared in full uniform and assisted them in conferring the knight rank upon six equities, three of whom were so impressed with the work that their applications for membership in the company followed immediately after the ceremony.

At the next assembly of this company, which will be held November 7, and is the regular monthly business assembly, these applications and several others are expected to be presented in due form. Also there is a great deal of important business to be transacted, but this will in no wise interfere with drilling, as it starts promptly at 8 p. m.

Sir Knights, next month is our twenty-third anniversary. Hurray! Just watch old Liberty No. 11.

LOYAL TEMPLE.

Loyal Temple of the Telephone Sisters, will give one of their usual pleasant whist parties at the hall, Thirteenth and Clay streets next Monday evening. A very select number of whist players are expected to be present in due form. Also there is a great deal of important business to be transacted, but this will in no wise interfere with drilling, as it starts promptly at 8 p. m.

Sir Knights, next month is our twenty-third anniversary. Hurray! Just watch old Liberty No. 11.

The ways and means committee of Uncas Tribe of Red Men, Mr. Moltke A. Schaefer, chairman, is making elaborate preparations for the next few months, which will be held in their wigwam, Twelfth and Franklin street on Monday evening, November 20. No expenses have been spared to make this event one of the most successful of any given by the Tribe, over one hundred dollars has been expended in securing beautiful presents and as a special feature two large Thanksgiving turkeys are to be given away as gate prizes; arrangements are being made to accommodate a large crowd as a number of tickets have already been asked for.

The by-law committee will present to the Tribe for approval and adoption, the new by-laws. Chairman Dan W. Pratt of this committee has been working faithfully for the past few months compiling and arranging the revised laws, the same have been inspected by great Sachem Cunningham who has expressed himself as being highly pleased with the complete code to be established by Uncas Tribe.

The degree team is preparing for a large class adoption to take place some night during this month, candidates for membership are beginning to arrive, as the new by-laws, which will be adopted, has increased the initiation fee two-thirds of its present cost.

An application for membership has been received from Mr. J. A. Nelson at the last regular meeting of the tribe.

American Council No. 8, Y. M. C. L. is preparing to entertain its friends with a ball to be given at Maple Hall on the evening of November 10th.

FOREST CIRCLE.

Pride of the Forest Circle, No. 122, had many members present at its last regular meeting. On the 15th of December a raffle will take place at Pythian Castle for a handsome umbrella, shawl, and what the committee thought of which light refreshments will be served to all that attend.

ROYAL ARCANUM.

Now that the question of rates in the Royal Arcanum has been definitely settled, the members are preparing to again turn their attention to the social features of their local council, Sierra No. 142.

As regards the new rates, it may be said that while it is true that the burden of the change will rest upon the older members, and that it will undoubtedly work hardships on many such, the future new members may now have the assurance of a stable rate of assessment, for whereas, at present, all of the old life insurance companies, and many of the fraternal base their premiums on a standard table of insurance which covers the period of twenty-eight years, thus the Royal Arcanum has taken full advantage of the experience of its years of existence and placed itself on a thoroughly substantial basis.

Many experts, to whom the new table has been submitted for inspection and criticism, pronounce it the best and most thorough that has yet been prepared.

There is no gainsaying the very regrettable fact that the burden of the change must be borne by the older members, but this seems to be one of the inevitable and unavoidable results of all progress, that while the community as a whole benefits by it, there must always be some who do not. As a result, however, there will be an entirely equal distribution of the burdens of the order.

Sierra Council No. 142 is now busily itself and preparing for the season's activity, which is already upon us. On next Tuesday evening, November 7th, the members only, of the local council, will be present at an introductory feature of the season's entertainment.

At the next regular meeting of Sierra Council, which occurs on November 13th, announcement will be made of some of the things that the local council has in store for the season. The entertainment committee, first among which are, a visit to Le Conte Council, Berkeley, on the evening of Nov. 23d, and a whist tournament to be given at Sierra Council's hall on November 27th, for the members only, of the local council.

Raw tobacco has no desirable smoking qualities. It's the "making-ready" processes of curing and fermenting that produce the fragrant aroma of a good cigar.

Is made of choicest selected leaf, thoroughly cured to a mellow ripeness and fermented for two years to bring its fragrance to full maturity. Absolutely uniform smoking quality is secured by a new process of scientific blending during this two-year fermentation—and it's very different from the cigar-maker's usual guess-work mixing.

These refining processes are exclusive features of the American Cigar Company's plant-to-purchaser organization—no other manufacturer even attempts them.

Perjury in Fake Damage Suits

The Chicago Tribune says the city attorney is setting a good example to the legal representatives of other municipalities by calling the attention of the State's attorney, and the grand jury to persons whom he suspects of having committed perjury in fraudulent damage suits against the city. Why not broaden the inquiry to persons suspected with good reason of swearing falsely and manufacturing evidence in fraudulent damage suits against public service corporations? It is a matter of common knowledge that a large proportion of the actions brought to recover damages for personal injuries are faked and the evidence to support them permeated with falsehood and collusion.

The Chicago paper says: "Fraudulent damage suits have increased with shocking rapidity in the last ten years. They have congested the dockets of courts. They have given rise to an appalling amount of perjury. They have brought unmerited prosperity to hundreds of scoundrel lawyers. They have become an immense item in the expense accounts of cities and of public service and large industrial corporations. The litigation they cause and the judgments secured cost the country an aggregate of many millions annually. Any movement which is likely to abate this carnival of graft deserves equal public support."

All this applies with equal force to corporations, which are harassed continually by legal sharks and damage suit blackmailers, who prosecute court processes and play upon popular prejudice in the effort to extort blackmail. The evil of this business is two-fold. In the first place, it corrupts judicial process and is a gross perversion of justice. In the second, it places serious obstacles in the way of deserving persons having legitimate claims for damages. Corporations cease to be discriminating or even just in their efforts to ward off predatory attacks, and hence fight just claims in the courts to the last resort or in settling beat the claimants down to the last farthing, taking every technical and unfair advantage to evade a righteous liability. This would not be the case if juries and courts were not so complaisant in the matter of fraudulent claims, in which perjury is the rule and blackmail the object.

Every time perjury is committed in a court of law in an effort to influence the determination of an action justice suffers and the administration of the law is corrupted. Perjury committed in behalf of a poor person as against a rich corporation does not differ from any other kind of perjury. It is swearing falsely to accomplish a dishonest object. Persons who do this are taking up a sword that will in turn smite them. False testimony to sustain a dishonest cause on one side is met with false testimony to vindicate the right on the other. By and by all distinctions of right and wrong are lost sight of on both sides, and damage suit litigation becomes a vast sink of corruption, poisoning the fountains of justice and soiling the crime itself.

Partridge in Los Angeles

The Times and the Herald of Los Angeles, which are popularly believed to be connected by an unbroken cord of interest, are exceeding wrath at John S. Partridge for refusing to pose as a Citizens' Alliance candidate. They call him all sorts of hard names for denying sympathy with the aims and objects of that organization. Apparently they would prefer to have Schmitz re-elected to seeing Partridge win under any other auspices than those of Herbert George and the gentlemen who are trying to crush the labor unions. In the course of a long and bitter editorial the Times says:

"Partridge has apparently abused the trust reposed in him by the law-abiding element in San Francisco. Acting upon the advice of the weak-kneed managers of his campaign, he has 'thrown down' the Citizens' Alliance by disclaiming sympathy with its purposes. He has united with the other demagogues in kow-towing to the unions. He has appealed to the unionists for support—which he will not get. Nearly all the votes of the kind he thus seeks are pledged in advance to the Ruef-Schmitz regime of moral and political rottenness."

Further on it says the only chance for Partridge to win was to declare for "industrial freedom,"—in other words, proclaim a war on organized labor. On that issue Partridge would be beaten out of sight. His only chance was the one he took of declaring against a class fight and repudiating the suggestion that he is a Citizens' Alliance candidate. Mr. Partridge stands for the open shop in politics, but as a citizen his sympathies are with organized labor. There is no reason to doubt his sincerity, for he is a poor man and has been a worker all his life, but his ideas stand him in good stead in this political pinch, for if he declared himself for class government he would be overwhelmingly beaten.

The municipality of New York has just established a ferry between Battery Park, Manhattan, and Staten Island, the old route over which Commodore Vanderbilt used to pull a Whitehall boat. The new steamer built and especially designed for the service is said to be the finest boat of her class on the Atlantic coast. But she was not built in New York. She was turned out of the yards of the Maryland Steel Company at Sparrow's Point, Baltimore, where the great steel floating dock for the Government's navy yard at Manila was built. It is a little odd that the Elizabeth yard of Captain Nixon, whom chief of Tammany Hall, did not get the contract.

Senator Elkins has a rate-fixing bill up his sleeve. There is a suspicion around the White House that it is on a par with the hand a sucker gets dealt to him from a cold deck.

One of the strongest arguments in favor of high license is that it knocks out low saloons. It gives the retail liquor trade a better atmosphere and cleaner surroundings, and it keeps the more vicious element out of the business.

Where Early Oranges are Grown

We find this in the Los Angeles Herald: "THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE shoots its little dart southward. The group of counties around Sacramento invariably produce the earliest oranges and the quality is usually the best." Strange that all this appears to be unknown in the orange consuming world."

It is not strange, because the fact is not unknown. It is simply denied by papers like the Herald. That the first oranges sent to market in California come from Butte, Placer, Yuba and Sacramento counties is a fact too well established to be successfully disputed. For years papers in "South" California persistently asserted that oranges could not be successfully grown north of Tehachapi, but since orange-growing has proved more remunerative in the San Joaquin valley than in the one-lung belt, the enterprising Angelinos have annexed the counties south of Merced to Southern California, abolishing the Tehachapi deadline and bidding defiance to the physical and political geography of their own creation. But has our Los Angeles contemporary taken notice of the fact that the first carload of oranges shipped East from California this season came from Tulare county? It noticed the fact that the first shipment of this year's crop to the San Francisco market came from Placer county only to inferentially deny it. Does the Missourian who edits the Herald desire to be shown further?

Rebates on Private Car Lines

Our old acquaintance J. S. Leeds, formerly manager of the defunct Traffic Association and more lately traffic manager of the Valley Railroad, now a part of the Santa Fe system, has been enlightening the Interstate Commerce Commission regarding the giving of rebates by the private car combines. Mr. Leeds is manager of the Santa Fe Refrigerator Despatch Company. He admits that rebates are paid shippers, but denies that any discrimination is practiced. His excuse for paying rebates is that the other private car lines also pay them. So it seems all of them are tarred with the same brush. However, Mr. Leeds' denial of discrimination will not go for much in view of his frank admission regarding rebates. Experience has demonstrated that rebates and discrimination usually go hand in hand. In another respect the testimony of Mr. Leeds is significant. He says the cars operated by his company are leased from the Santa Fe Railroad, which owns them. The question arises, if the railroad owns the cars why does it lease them to another corporation engaged in the transportation business for hire instead of operating them itself? Why put the shippers up against a middleman who admits practices which the courts have declared to be unlawful?

Fresno still maintains its reputation for being one of the most enterprising and public-spirited cities in California. An example of the Fresno spirit was given the other day when a bond issue for a new city hall and sewerage system was voted with practical unanimity. Oakland should get into that way of doing things.

This year the Autumn bards have got the poets of Spring skinned a block, both for quality and quantity. Evidently the verse-carpeters are just waking up to the fact that when the pumpkin, the orange and the apple get ripe is the season of the year to get real glad and sing about it.

In his Atlanta speech President Roosevelt said, "I am convinced that the well-being of our wage-workers demands the exclusion of the Chinese coolies, and it is therefore our duty to exclude them." In the light of this utterance how can anyone harbor the notion that the Administration has any sympathy with the scheme to break down the Exclusion Act?

THE UNITARIAN WAIL.

THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE asks: "Are Unitarians Christians?" The answer is not easy to give. Some are and some are not. Jews are unitarian in their belief as to what God is, but some Unitarians, while denying the divinity of Jesus, base their belief on the New Testament, and they are, consequently, "evangelical Christians," because they take the gospel for the basis of their faith.

Before "Unitarian" can be defined, the individual Unitarian must be found and the definition will be found to vary almost with each individual. Some Unitarian congregations are mildly ritualistic and seem to have well defined creeds. That is the New England kind. The New England Unitarian comes very near being "orthodox," yet those who recently called a conference of "evangelical Christians" in the East, have refused to recognize Minot Savage, a conservative or evangelical Unitarian, as Christian enough to join in the conference. Mr. Savage should not have tried to "butt in" to that gathering, for he must, or should have known, that the movers do not recognize his ideas of what constitutes evangelical Christianity as correct. Some Unitarians seem to try to be at once orthodox and liberal and make a failure of both.

In a sermon on the subject in New York last Sunday Mr. Savage showed that he had every reason to expect the snub. He said it was not a new move and that the federation, like the Y. M. C. A., had for years been willing to accept Unitarian money, but gave Unitarians a back seat. In view of this knowledge, would it not have been the party of dignity and prudence to have kept out of range of the orthodox snub?—Stockton News.

A REMINISCENCE.

She's far away, the summer girl,
The months have swiftly hurried by,
And lonely, 'mid the breakers' swirl,
The ocean sephyr breathes its sigh.
I wonder was she short or tall,
That lass whose charms could so beguile,
But all that fancy can recall
Is just a freckle and a smile.

I know not if her eyes are blue,
Or if her hair was raven black;
Of graces such as these we view
Each day no noticeable lack.
But nature ne'er again has caught
The archness, the unstudied wit,
The psychic combination wrought
By just a freckle and a smile.

THE HIGHWAY.

Life is a highway wondrous fair,
And we are but pilgrims journeying there.

And it's here the rain and there the rain,
And ever the sun comes out again;

And it's over the hill and under the hill,
But ever the way leads onward still;

And it's here a stone and there a stone,
And it's many a mile one must go alone;

And it's here a foe and there a friend,
And many the turn, and, at last, the end.

Life is a highway wondrous fair,
And we are but pilgrims journeying there.

HAS WIFE, BUT WOOS VILLAGE SMITHY'S DAUGHTER

NEW YORK, October 31.—On his own confession Frank Remus, a handsome Spaniard, was committed to the Tombs yesterday charged with luring from her home seventeen-year-old Mary Markewitz, the daughter of the blacksmith at New Village, Warren county, N. J. He is said to have admitted that he has a wife and several children in Spain.

Remus was making a walking tour through New Jersey when he secured employment from the village smithy and fell in love with the daughter. Four days ago they decided to elope and came to this city stopping at a fashionable apartment hotel uptown. They remained there until their money was about to give out. Then they went to a tenement house at No. 58 Cherry street. Their money gave out and when Remus told his companion they were about to be discovered she promptly wrote to her parents that he was willing to marry her as soon as he got money to pay the clergyman. She asked the blacksmith to send on the necessary amount.

Instead, Markewitz with his wife came to New York and had the couple arrested.

Remus explained to Magistrate Wente that he loved the girl and wanted to marry her. The Magistrate explained however that with a wife in Spain this was impossible for Remus and he was committed.

When it was decided to hold the girl as a witness the father became excited. He finally gave as a bond for her his frame house and blacksmith shop one cow one dog and some chickens. He and his wife left the court all smiles with the girl still weeping.

RIVAL WIVES WAR FOR AN INSANE HUSBAND

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Two women appeared in a Brooklyn court Saturday and claiming an insane man for a husband fought for the right to be his guardian.

The man for whom the bitter legal battle is being waged is John W. Wallace, president of the John W. Wallace Company. He is now in Bloomingdale. Both women want to administer his estate.

Clara M. Wallace of No. 1108 Bergen street Brooklyn some time ago petitioned to have her husband sent to an asylum and Mrs. Mary M. Wallace, of No. 840 Halsey street Saturday appeared and declared that she was the wife of the man who had been declared insane.

Both women were dumbfounded at the story of domestic duplicity which developed at the hearing. The attorney for Mrs. Clara Wallace produced a decree purporting to show that Mrs. Mary M. Wallace had been divorced nearly thirteen years ago. She declared however that she had never heard of such a divorce proceeding and that she had been living with Wallace until he was sent to the asylum.

Judge Aspinall appointed a Surety Company to handle the Wallace estate until the tangle can be cleared up.

WOMAN, 111 YEARS OF AGE, MILKS TWO COWS DAILY

PITTSBURG, Nov. 2.—Perhaps Dr. William Osler never heard of Miss Belsey Freeman of Redbank Junction. It may be that Mrs. Belsey Freeman never heard of Dr. Osler. But she has nevertheless put a few dents in his theory.

Mrs. Freeman has lived 111 years. She is still active, hearty and cheerful. She celebrated her one hundred and eleventh birthday at Redbank Junction recently and her friends and neighbors for miles around were present to do the old woman honor.

Mrs. Freeman has plenty to do and she does it. There is no danger of her dying of inactivity. She won't rust but the care of one of her children had eighty-two years old taken up no little of her time. Besides she milks two cows daily and drives them to and from pasture a considerable distance.

She is as active as a woman of fifty. She played the hostess at the celebration with charming grace and had a smile a shake of the hand and a pleasant word for every caller. And she knew most of them by name. Her faculties are scarcely impaired.

Mrs. Freeman has lived at Redbank Junction for twenty-two years. She takes great pleasure in reading the Bible and has memorized a considerable portion of it. Her general health is good and it is thought she has several years more of life.

WEDDING KNOT TIED AS COUPLE SIT IN A BUGGY.

COLUMBUS, Ind., November 1.—An unhappy marriage followed by a divorce has ended happily and oddly too in the wedding of Mrs. Effie Calvin Kennedy and her first love, Charles Deist son of Mrs. Louisa Deist. Both are from highly connected families of Brown county and the odd features of the reuniting of the sweethearts is that they were married in the road in front of the residence of Justice Mason in Nashville, Brown county.

The bride was formerly Miss Effie Calvin daughter of Collins Effie. When children she and Charles Deist were schoolmates and later they became sweethearts. About the time when their friends were daily expecting to hear of their engagement or their marriage an estrangement occurred and later she became the wife of Dr. Edward Kennedy, of Freetown. This was four years ago. Dr. and Mrs. Kennedy lived together at Freetown and two years after their marriage he applied for a divorce and she returned to Nashville to live with her father.

Since early spring young Deist who is a prosperous farmer courted his sweetheart and again the people of the village have been expecting the announcement of their engagement. The plans for the marriage were made and were kept secret. A license was obtained and while on their way to his mother's home west of the city they stopped in front of Justice Mason's house and called him out.

While seated in the buggy with the Justice standing in the road the ceremony their friends expected over five years ago was performed.

TINY GIRL REBUKES S. P. C. A. CHIEF FOR KILLING FLIES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Is a man who is an agent for the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals also bound to protect every living thing between the animal and the animalcule?

That seems to be a burning question just now in some quarters. It is known that there is condemnation for a man who needlessly sets his foot upon a worm but on the other hand should a man allow himself to be plagued by insect pests to the extent of absolute torment rather than to take arms against a swarm of such troubles?

Major L. N. Middlebrook has for years been officer of the S. P. C. A. at Bridgeport Conn. but he will probably resign if required to extend his supervision over all animated nature.

The following letter left recently at his office will explain itself. Bridgeport Oct. 13 1905. Mr. Middlebrook I am only a little girl but as I am going today I feel as if I cannot go without writing to you. I have been visiting my aunt here and about three weeks ago she sent me to your office on an errand. The door to your room was open and I went in, but there was not anybody there.

I waited a little while and then I saw something that made me feel so bad that I came right away and told my aunt. Our papa always learned us children at home to be kind to all dumb animals even to insects. And you as an agent of the same society and thought to be such a good man had something in your office that my papa says is one of the worst instruments of torture ever invented. It was sticky fly paper.

'They are days and days on it before they die with their legs and wings pulled out. It is terrible. I told my aunt never to say again you were a good man. I know my papa will tell right to write this. C. M.

The empress of Japan has a poetic inclination and is the author of several volumes of verse. One of the features of all state occasions is the singing of a song by the school children which was composed for them by her majesty. During the rendition of this song the children stand with their heads bowed as if in prayer. The empress takes a great interest in all school work and has in her private apartments a large collection of the best specimens of poetry painting and composition done by the pupils of the empire.

The Infanta Paz aunt of the king of Spain and wife of Prince Louis Ferdinand of Bavaria has entered the ranks of royal and princely authors. Not content with visiting the poor whom her husband, the famous doctor, attends for nothing—she has lately employed her time in ransacking foreign literature for mention of "Don Quixote." The celebrations in honor of Cervantes which were recently held in Spain inspired the princess with the idea of her work and she has produced a book which is an admirable bibliography of the great Spanish author and is enriched with a number of amusing anecdotes.

LARCENY OF KISSES PUTS WOOLER IN A CELL

GROTE'S FOUR PLEDGES THAT GAINED HIM FREEDOM.

I will never kiss Louisa again. I will not climb up the fire-escape any more. I will not even go near the house. I will never speak to or look at Louisa again.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Because he kissed her Miss Louisa Andros caused the arrest of John Grote and he was arraigned yesterday in Yorkville Court. Miss Andros lives with her brother-in-law, at No. 204 East Fifty-sixth street, and Grote lives at No. 238 East Fifty-sixth street. Their romance has lasted since they were boy and girl in Baden Germany.

Several years ago Grote followed her, according to her allegation in court, and persistently has pursued her as a most ardent wooer. Blushingly, Miss Andros told of how Grote had kissed her while in a street car, and she also charged that he had climbed the fire escape, entered her window and awakened her on two occasions with kisses that would have shamed a Romeo.

Grote admitted all and told Magistrate Finn that his only excuse was that he loved the girl. Miss Andros related after a while and Grote was not punished, although Magistrate Finn caused him to make these promises under oath. That he never would kiss the girl again that he never would climb the fire escape again, that he never would look at or speak to Miss Andros again.

It is all the more embarrassing to me said Miss Andros, 'because I am engaged to marry another man and our wedding will occur soon.'

HEALTH AND BEAUTY.

A tablespoonful of glycerine in a wine glassful of hot milk will often relieve a paroxysm of coughing.

We all know, more or less the agony of toothache and other pains, is often comforting a bag of hot salt is, often giving immediate relief while a weak solution, used as gargle, is good for sore throats, not forgetting it is also beneficial as a dentifrice.

'A beauty doctor' advises every woman before retiring at night to let the hair down at least half an hour, and sit by the open window with the hair streaming over the back of a chair. Shake the locks well in the breeze then dust with powderedorris root or scented talcum powder.

When there is sickness in a house and disinfectants are needed allow four tablespoonfuls of carbolic acid to each pint of cold water, pour down sinks and pipes and allow it to remain about half an hour before flushing. Remember, however, that the carbolic acid is poisonous and must be kept in a plainly labeled bottle.

Nothing is better to take on rising than a cup of hot water. One hot drink on an empty stomach clears the system for the day, and for many persons a tablespoonful of lemon juice increases the efficacy. Taken on going to bed without lemon it will help to induce sleep. Both night and morning it has the effect of helping to clear the complexion.

Many are the suggestions offered as to resting, for strange as it may seem, few people understand the art of resting properly. Thorough rest does not necessarily mean lying down or sitting, it means to relax the entire system the mind and body. For a tired brain physical exercise is the best remedy rather than a resort to drugs. If a brisk walk in the fresh air can be taken, so much the better. A very

SOCIETY GIRL BRIDE OF INDIAN DONS SQUAWS' GARB

NEW YORK, October 30.—The smart set receives with much interest the announcement that a former New York society girl has adopted picturesque Indian garb including moccasins, shawls and headress and is mingling with the Redskins on the Shoshone reservation near Lander Wyo. She has a baby which she carries in a papoose sling, most gorgeously decorated with bead trimmings. That she is happy dressed and doing things as a squaw is evident from letters to her relatives.

The young woman is the wife of Bishop Sherman Coolidge a full-blooded Arapahoe Indian. She is beautiful and cultured. She was Grace Wetherbee, and her father is one of the proprietors of the Manhattan Hotel at Madison Avenue and Forty-second street. Her husband was ordained a minister of the Episcopal Church in Cheyenne in 1884, and since has been doing missionary work among the Arapahoe and Shoshone Indians on the Wind River Reservation which the Government soon is to throw open to white settlers.

My daughter Grace is the wife of a full-blooded Indian said her father yesterday. 'He is a most estimable young man and the equal mentally and physically of any white man I ever met. They were married three years ago at Fort Washakie, Wyoming by the Rev. E. J. Roberts. Grace met the bishop when she visited the mission with Bishop Talbot, of Pennsylvania. Mrs. Talbot and their daughter.

Their marriage was with her parents' consent. It was not for me to interfere with her happiness. I do not know that he has adopted a tribal costume and is carrying her babe in a papoose sling. However, she and her husband might have deemed this advisable, in order to bring them in closer touch with the Indians.

Bishop Coolidge was taken captive when a child by the Shoshones, then at war with the Arapahoes. He was adopted by Captain Coolidge of the Tenth Cavalry, and sent to Hobart. Later he was taken in charge by Bishop Whipple of the Episcopal Church and sent to school at Fairbank Minn. He is about forty years of age and his wife is twenty-seven.

HELD UP AND KISSED; LIPS CHILD'S KISS WINS A PARDON FOR ITS FATHER.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Because her sweetheart kissed her too often Mary Chaslinsky, employed by Robert Melish, of Secaucus, had her woeful haled to a criminal court in Jersey City. The girl is seventeen year old, and came from Poland about a year ago with Mrs. Ida Weber, who has a boarding house in Jersey City.

The girl ran away a year ago and went to the farmer's home to work in court her lawyer, T. A. Sproggins said that Wadiso Borowsky was her suitor, but that she liked him no more because of his inordinate passion for osculation.

I was on the point of being discharged many times the girl said because of this man's conduct. He would waylay me and kiss me daily. He would come into the kitchen and kiss me hundreds of times. I could not avoid him, and as a result the beef often was spoiled or dinner was more than an hour late.

I complained to Mr. Melish but he blamed me. Wadiso had worked for him for five years and was a good man on the farm, so Mr. Melish always took his part.

My lips are sore and my face is in a terrible condition, as he hardly ever shaved and his stubby beard would cut my cheeks painfully. I want to make a charge of assault and have him put under bonds to keep away from me. ***** good remedy for a weary brain is to rise slowly on the toes (lifting the heels from the floor) until the muscles at the calf of the leg ache, and then to kick vigorously a few times. Repeat this simple exercise several times and excellent results will follow.

All physiologists agree in teaching that fat is especially needed in cold weather as it helps to keep up body heat. But there is another side to the question. Owing to loss of perspiration and change of diet some people get quite distressingly thin in the summer. There may not be any danger to life, but as the emaciation comes on at the very time when it cannot be hidden by thick clothing it is very unpleasant. Such persons are not advised to sacrifice health to beauty of form by unduly indulging in fats. What they may do is to partake of cocoa, chocolate, milk, cream and butter to the greatest extent their digestion will allow. They can cry halt at the first

TWINS, SMALLEST ON RECORD, WEIGH BUT THREE POUNDS

NEW ORLEANS, October 30.—In the Milliken Hospital there are a pair of twins which are probably the smallest living twins in this section of the country, if not in the whole United States.

Together they weigh less than three pounds and though they are so small they can hardly be seen in their little beds, they are thriving under the careful nursing of the Sisters and nurses of the Milliken Hospital. 'They are the cutest little things you ever saw,' said one of the nurses, and the rest of the attaches agreed with her. 'They are boys and although they are only twenty-two days old, they have already been named in the hospital register their names are given as Charles and Kolmer Morgan, and their address as 1207 Annette street. If one should try to distinguish Charles from Kolmer he would have a hard time doing it and it is doubtful if their mother could do so without a careful examination.

Lying side by side they look just as if they were dolls. They are not nearly as large as the dolls babies usually play with, and they each weigh about one pound five ounces.

Last Friday the mother of the children took the little fellows to the hospital because she said she was not physically able to nurse and care for them as they should be. She was told to take them to the Milliken Hospital, which is used for children only. When she entered the hospital with the little fellows the Sisters and nurses could hardly believe that anything that small could have lived. The mother was questioned and she said that as far as she had been able to tell the babies were doing well, and did not appear to be the least bit ill.

They were thirteen days old when they were taken to the hospital. The Sisters and nurses told Mrs. Morgan they would take the utmost care of her babies and she need have no fear on that score.

Think of a baby weighing only one pound five ounces! If it were not for their cooling and occasional cries, one could hardly tell they are really babies. They are good healthy children, however, and the attaches of the hospital are almost as proud of them as their mother is, and it is pretty certain that they will be sorry when the mother takes them from the Milliken Hospital.

HELD UP AND KISSED; LIPS CHILD'S KISS WINS A PARDON FOR ITS FATHER.

JEFFERSON CITY, Mo., Nov. 2.—Governor Joseph W. Folk has been caught in the act of accepting a bribe. He admits it—in fact, he glories in it! The bride was a pretty, golden-haired, blue-eyed maiden. The bride was a kisser from her dainty lips. Strangely enough, even Mrs. Folk did not object. For the maiden is just five years old.

The kiss won for the child a pardon for her father and a new happiness for her mother. The father, Toney Cruse, had been sent up from Kansas City for six years for false registration. He was asked to sign a book by a politician and did so, not knowing what he was doing. When accused he confessed and having no means to hire counsel was sent to the pen.

His young wife, with her baby of four months her son of three years and daughter of five, reached Jefferson City this morning. The Governor listened to her story and seemed in doubt. As he sat studying over the case the little girl timidly approached. He felt a pull at his sleeve and looked down into the tear swimming eyes of the tiny maiden. He put his arm around her and asked: 'Well dear?'

'If you pardon my papa I'll give you—I'll give you—a kiss!'

'All right little one,' said the Governor. 'You shall take your papa home with you.'

BIRTH.

God thought: A million blazing worlds were wrought.

God willed: Earth rose while all creation thrilled.

God spoke: And in the Garden love awoke.

God smiled: Lo in the mother's arms a child.

An American lady who at a dinner party in Madrid was seated next to a Spanish admiral was praising the beauties of the Spanish language, 'so exquisitely musical and poetic.' 'Ah, madam,' replied the courtly Spaniard, 'your language, too, has soft and beautiful words, but they are not always appreciated. What could be more musical than your word, cellar door?'

TENNIS TOURNAMENT AT CLAREMONT CLUB

The Claremont Country Club will hold its first annual tennis tournament on the club courts in Oakland this Saturday and Sunday. It will be an invitational doubles event, in which the best players in Northern California have been invited to compete. It is the intention of the Claremont Club to hold these tournaments annually, and for that reason two handsome challenge cups will be the prizes. Like all other trophies that are up for competition at present, these must be won three times before they become the personal property of any team.

The Claremont Club is fortunate in getting the players it has for this tournament, as some of them have not figured in tournament play for many months. Among the best teams that will compete are: Frank S. Siltchell and Grant M. Smith, R. T. Crawford and Percy Murdoch, Baker brothers, George and Nell, Herbert Schmidt and Harry Reid, L. B. Roberts, Herbert and Melville, and W. S. Hobart and J. O. Tobin. A number of other crack players have been asked to take part and will form teams later in the week. With this list of entries and the lower class of the tournament should be one of the most interesting held in some time. The teams appear to be very evenly matched, and it would be a hard matter to name the winners. Siltchell and Smith and Frank Mitchell would have a shade if both were right, but neither has figured in a tournament for some time.

TWO OUT OF THREE.
The matches, with the exception of the finals, will consist of best two out of three sets. The finals will be three out of five. Play will start at 2:30 p. m. Saturday, and continue the following day. The remaining matches will go on as directed by the tournament committee. The final match will in all probability be played on the afternoon of Thanksgiving day.

It is the intention of the directors of the Claremont Country Club to devote more to tennis in the future. While many doubles have been planned for the coming event, a singles competition will likely be a fixture later in the season each year.

While there are no high-class players among the members, the invitational tournaments will be open to them. There are a number of promising men in the club, and when they have developed their game home-and-home, such as the others held on the golf course, would add considerably to the interest in the sport.

The Claremont Club has three tennis courts, which are said to be the best in the State. Two are of crushed shell and one of asphalt. While the local players are not familiar with a shell court, those who have played on one declare that it is superior in every way to the asphalt. Not only is it easier on the feet, but the ball takes a truer bound.

ASSOCIATION WILLIE KNAPP GAME AT U. OF C. IS COMING HERE

BERKELEY, November 2.—With the modest object of starting association football at the University of California on a small scale, while hopeful for its growth in popularity, a score of undergraduates are tonight kicking the ball about on the old football grounds on the lower campus below California Hall. The students who are playing the game are all novices with little experience, but anxious to learn, and for this reason eight of their number have joined the "Hornets," the crack association football team, which is playing weekly matches with other teams in the league.

The innovation has the hearty support of the faculty, and particularly President Benjamin Ide Wheeler, who has always argued for the introduction of the game among the Berkeley boys. Several years ago President Wheeler tried to arouse an interest in the game by importing two league teams to the Berkeley campus and pulling off a match for the benefit of the undergraduates. The game was good, but the students did not consider it equal to their beloved three college football, and the suggestion died.

HIGH SCHOOLS IN FIELD DAY

The second semi-annual field day of the athletes in the freshman classes of the Bay Counties high schools, will take place on the University of California cinder path on Saturday afternoon. From the work done on the high school teams by the athletes to compete, Lowell will have the best men. Bressi is the best athlete in the meet and is very likely to win three events, namely, high hurdles, broad and high jumps. As yet Lick has not entered a team, and although the programs went to press yesterday, it is quite certain that school will enter a team on the field. The entries are as follows:

NEW WORLD'S RECORD IS MADE

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Oscar St. Cyr made a new world's record for swimming forty yards last night in the tank of the Chicago Athletic Association, covering the distance in twenty-one seconds. The distance was made in competition.

FIGHT BETWEEN FITZSIMMONS AND O'BRIEN SEEMS CERTAIN

San Francisco to be Scene of Contest.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—It is almost certain now that "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien and Bob Fitzsimmons will meet in this city in a twenty-round encounter some time during the latter part of December. Last night a dispatch came from New York stating that J. W. Coffroth, who is now in the big city, had promised a match with O'Brien to Fitzsimmons for December 20. At this end of the line Alex Greggains has received assurances from O'Brien that he will fight Fitz and Alex is waiting patiently to hear from the freckled Cornishman.

Both Coffroth and Greggains have applications in for the December permit, but if the disposition of permits during the past year can be taken as any criterion, Alex will be favored. Whichever one gets it, however, it looks as though Fitz and O'Brien will be the card.

The dispatch received from New York reads as follows:
New York, Nov. 1.—Robert Fitzsimmons will fight "Philadelphia Jack" O'Brien in San Francisco December 20, unless the plans now under way go astray. The Cornishman, who is back in New York, said so himself tonight. He said, though, that the battle will be for the world's heavy-weight championship.

"I have quit the stage for the purpose of entering the ring again," declared the ex-champion pugilist. "O'Brien is anxious to meet me. The offer was for November 20, but of course, that would not be sufficient time for me to get into condition again. I met Coffroth, the San Francisco promoter, several hours ago, and told him that if I could get a match for December 20 I would gladly accept. Coffroth said that he would give me that date and I have accepted. You may say for me that the match is on unless O'Brien flunks."

RACE GOERS IN IS OPPOSED TO FAVOR OF CHANGE FOOTBALL GAME MEET IS ON CARD

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—An interesting situation has developed in regard to Fred Duden of the Columbia football team. His father, M. Duden, is much opposed to his indulging in the game and had written a letter to President Butler of the university setting forth his reasons for not wishing his son to play. The letter says:

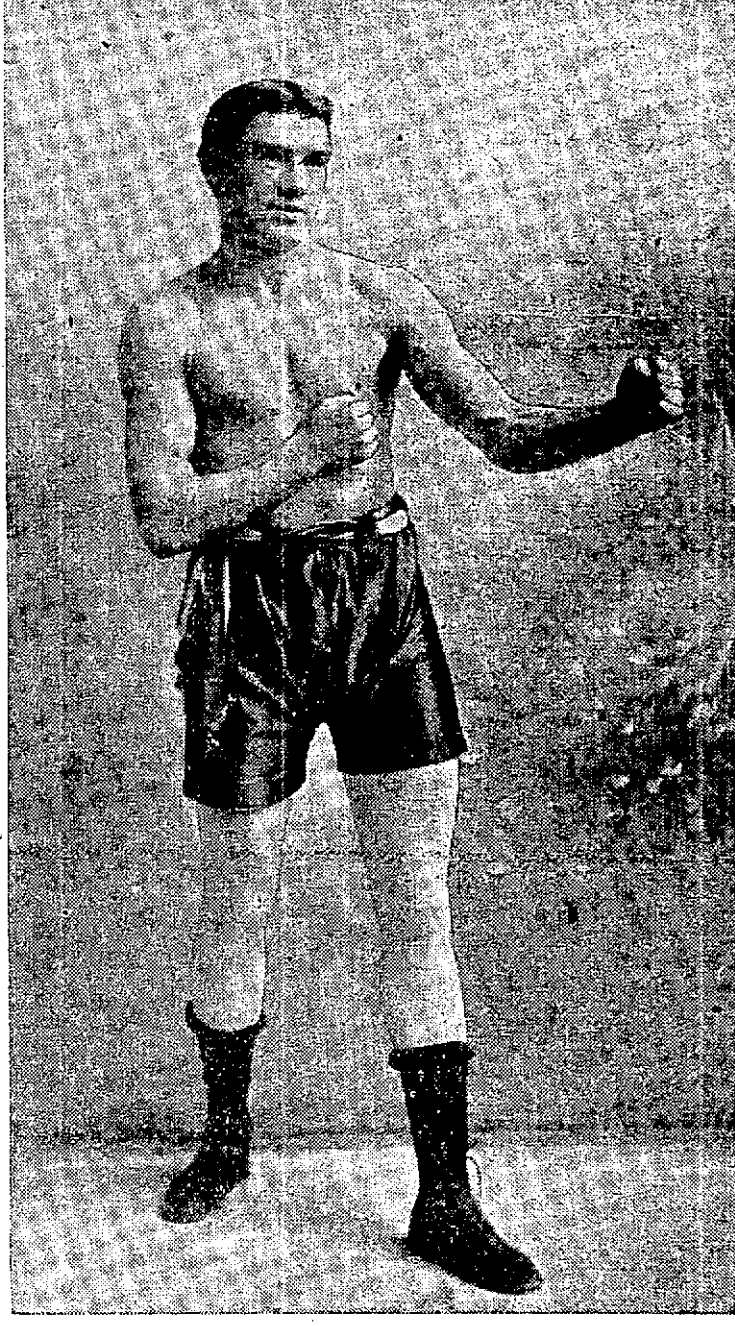

"My son, a senior in the school of mines has to finish his studies and to be graduated this year. He has lost one year at the university by being unable to pass his examinations because of playing football and had to take the same course over again. I have now a telegram addressed by Coach Knapp to my son dated at 9 a. m. for football practice."

"How can my son study when he has to be at the oval at 9 o'clock in the morning for football practice and again at 4 in the afternoon until late? I certainly did not send my son to the university to learn to play football, and find it ruins his constitution, besides the bodily harm he risks every day. I am a parent desiring that his son shall not pursue football he must persuade him through other means. Just so long as the scholarship is maintained at the expense of his studies, I will not permit the student's action in athletics."

To this letter the university authorities made the following reply:
"The standing of a scholar is uniformly good. It is impossible for the university to take action in such cases. It is a parent's duty to see that his son is properly educated. The university will not interfere with the student's action in athletics."

Then came the unwelcome change. He was ordered to walk his horse to the barrier, make them halt, dress up, and then start from a stand. They had those few seconds of time in which to get into the race, and then they were off. The matter has been thrashed out thoroughly. It has been demonstrated that the race is not a fair one, and that the horses could be aligned and sent off with their right foot forward from a walking start. The stewards know it, yet persist in clinging to the hybrid method of walking the horses up, and then checking them when they are all ready and eager to jump off. There is no fault found with the starting as it is conducted at present. Cassidy does as well as any man could do under the handicap of the system, but he was allowed his own method, would do still better.

So it is in England, where they have been victims of this same system. But in the racing public has made its voice heard. They have come out boldly in print and otherwise, and reviled the hybrid system as opposed to the best interests of the racing public. They have demanded that it shall be altered, and that horses shall be started from a walk, in the same way that they used to be previous to the introduction of the barrier. No one is anxious to do away with barrier starting. It has proved itself such a boon in many ways.

"PHILADELPHIA JACK" O'BRIEN.
Whose next opponent will probably be Robert Fitzsimmons.

RACE GOERS IN IS OPPOSED TO FAVOR OF CHANGE FOOTBALL GAME MEET IS ON CARD

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 2.—Southern California harness horse lovers are to see one of the greatest match races of the year this fall. Hazel Patch, 2:03 3/4, is to meet that great California stallion, Zolock, 2:05 1/4, in a series of three races at San Bernardino, Santa Ana and Los Angeles.

Arrangements for the match were completed by Secretary A. W. Bruner Friday and the horsemen who knew of it have been talking of nothing else. Zolock's ability is well known and his owner and trainer are confident the fine animal can step along in 2:02 in company with Hazel Patch. The pair will race for $1000 purse, the winner to take 70 per cent and the loser 30.

Hazel Patch has been one of the most remarkable performers in the East this season. She drove Laconda to his record of 2:02, being beaten a neck in the second heat of one of the greatest races ever seen at Lexington, the home of fast horses. In a fourth heat Patch also drove The broncho to her record of 2:03 1/4 and has beaten such good ones as Nathan Strauss, 2:03 1/4, Norvold, 2:04 1/4, and others just as good.

It will be a grand race which will attract thousands from all sections of the State. Both horses will have many followers, and while Hazel Patch has the best record, many horsemen believe Zolock can go much faster than he has ever shown.

MANY RACES.
The coming harness meeting here will surpass anything ever seen on the Coast. The entries will be larger and the fields are certain to outnumber those of the spring meeting. The horses have all been raced during the summer and the owners know which horses are fit to be entered and raced. As a consequence there will be no entries subject to development of form.

To date Secretary Bruner has received 212 entries.
In the 2:09 pacing class there will be six fast competitors, Kay Briggs, Miss Idaho, Vishon, Nidal Wavo, Robert J. and Miss Georgia, and others equally as good. The free-for-all will bring out the great Zolock, probably Hazel Patch, Dandellon, Richard B., and a couple of others. The different trotting classes will also be filled with many entries.

WHAT CHASE SAYS WHEN HE TALKS

BY J. M.
SAN JOSE, October 31.—Hal Chase, the idol of New York baseball fandom, hatless and coatless, faced Emil Mayer yesterday across the expanse of a table set for three, and between mouthfuls of strawberries and cream responded in monosyllables to the interrogations of the reporter who had been commissioned to secure by peaceful means, if possible, a story of the young man's travels and past performance.

As a conversationalist Chase would easily draw the booby prize at a talk-fest.
"Pretty glad to get back to the fine climate," ventured the reporter.
"Get your life," was the grinding response, and then perceiving that his strawberries were all gone, he reached over and replenished from the untouched dish of the manager. (Mayer was preoccupied, telling about his "All-Star" team and failed to notice the taking manners of the young Highlander.)
"How does it feel, Hal, to read the black-lettered notices that 'Tomorrow, being today, Handsome Hal Chase will absolutely appear at American League Park?'"

The "phenom" was off his guard and a reply came.
"ALMOST A SCRAP."
"I nearly got into a scrap over that when they started to josh me in Los Angeles about the girls. It was Tom Flood that put the idea into Morley's head and the latter began advertising me as 'Handsome Hal'—'Whorcas,' put in Mayer, 'you should have been billed as 'Bashful Sal.'"
Mayer got away with it, too.
"Honest, though," added Mayer, "there was a difference of 15,000 in attendance on days when Hal played and those days that he was off. Actually, when the boy was out of the game for a while with a cut over his eye, Clark Griffith lost so much money, owing to the decreased attendance, that he had four doctors working on him to get him into playing condition. Believe me."

"Amy, there were only two," interrupted Chase.
"You should have a trunk filled with newspaper notices if you kept a quarter of those printed," remarked the reporter.
"No, no, no," continued Chase, "I am traveling, and then after a while you get so used to reading sporting 'dope' that it doesn't affect you as at first. At least that was the way I felt about it. I commenced saving some and I sent a few to him—indicating the silent (?) manager with the handle of his fork—but then I kept losing them and finally gave it up."
"Here's one," ejaculated Mayer (just as if he hadn't been waiting all day to show it), and he exhibited a full page from the New York American containing five snapshots of the "Boy Wonder" in action, interspersed with two columns of reading matter from the press of the gifted Julian Hawthorne, telling of baseball feats performed by the California boy, unprecedented in the history of the national game.

SOME TALK.
Then Chase delivered what is probably the longest speech of his lifetime. "I wish you'd stop putting me on," he said, "that Clark Griffith is as good a fellow and as nice a manager as there is in the business. He had a bunch of hard luck last season, there was always something or another to keep one or more of our men out of the game all of the time and I don't say we want out of the White Stockings with but four of our regular team in the line-up, I'll bet we come out at the top of the heap next time, are we not?"

"I hope you do," said the reporter, quickly seconded by Mayer.
"But you're talking me around or play ball?" was the final question.
Mayer's eyes bulged. "What are you talking about? Why, Chase would rather jump around on a ball field than the private Secretary of J. Pierpont. Sure. How about it, Hal?"
"and come to think of it, I promised to go out to the park this afternoon and practice a bit," and he arose from the table and started for the door.
"One more," pleaded the interviewer. "How long have you been in the game?"
Chase wrinkled his brow and turned appealingly to the little man, who thereupon consulted a note book and gave the following data:
Hal Chase was born in Los Gatos in 1884, moving from there to Alviso, thence to San Jose. He started his baseball career at Alviso. He was joined to the team of Mayer Brothers and then played two seasons with the Santa Clara College, of which institution he was a student. During his college days he pitched in several games and gave promise of being a good twirler. In 1903 he went to Victoria, B. C., with Elmer Emmons, and then signed by Morley, of Los Angeles, to play on his 1904 team.

HIS PLAYING.
Practically unknown at the start, his playing soon became the talk of the State, and at the end of the season he was drafted by the New York Americans and was forced to go East, notwithstanding the vigorous battle made by Manager Morley to hold him. In the training camp in the southland his gentle, unassuming manners and the utter absence of any signs of swelled head, and his willingness to take the advice and profit by the teachings of older players soon made him a prime favorite with his new team mates, who were more than anxious to assist him in the many ways that brush the rocks from the path of a young player.
His success during the past year has been the one big feature of the American League. Coming after a season of space has been devoted to his wonderful playing by sporting writers on all the newspapers of the big eastern cities, and as an extra, he has shown up every first baseman in the league by the way he plays his position.

It is hard to get him to talk; he leaves that to others, but as "actions are louder than words," his playing speaks for itself. He still remains the same old fellow, but certainly a little fellow that left here last spring, and, judging from appearances, will always remain the same old fellow. He is expected to get a good look at him on Saturday afternoon, when he makes his initial appearance as player on the San Jose team in the local game.
He is not married.

BOWLERS TO LOCALS TAKE HOLD BIG ANOTHER GAME

There will be a meeting of the tournament committee Friday night, at 8 o'clock, at the Broadway alleys, corner Fourteenth and Broadway, to discuss the coming winter tournament. The bowlers are earnestly requested to be on hand and bring their friends. This will be beneficial to every bowler, as he can acquaint himself with every detail. This will be the first tournament to be held under the direction of the Western Bowling Congress of Alameda County, and it promises to be a great success, as there will be money enough to give plenty of good prizes.

The double tournament now in progress on the Broadway and Palace alleys was represented on the latter alley by three teams, respectively, Ed Long and J. Crullishank, J. Lawler and William McCutcheon, L. Campbell and Ward. Ed Long carried off the honors for the high score while Campbell and Ward were the scores.

Three teams bowled in the doubles last night on the Syndicate alleys:
Ellis ..... 151 204 152-507
Barnett ..... 187 170 168-525
Handicap ..... 1032
Total ..... 1077
Brown ..... 144 145 166-455
Cluno ..... 145 139 175-519

Handicap ..... 46
Total ..... 1077
High scores: Stratton, 200; Ellis, 204; Jones, 242; Andrews, 245.
High scores at Broadway alleys: Charles Strode, 219; 219; Ed Long, 207; 222; Robert Strode, 212; George Ellis, 220.
"Hello, old chap!" remarked the cabbage, "you're looking good."
"Yes," rejoined the watermelon, "but I'm feeling rather seedy, just the same." —Chicago News.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.
Yesterdays results.
Tacoma 3, San Francisco 2.
Oakland 3, Seattle 2.
Los Angeles 9, Portland 6.

Real baseball, of the kind that makes fans, was dished up at Idora Park yesterday afternoon. The Commodore took the second game of their series with the Swashes by a score of 3 to 2, making a winning record for the last half of the ninth and changing defeat into victory.

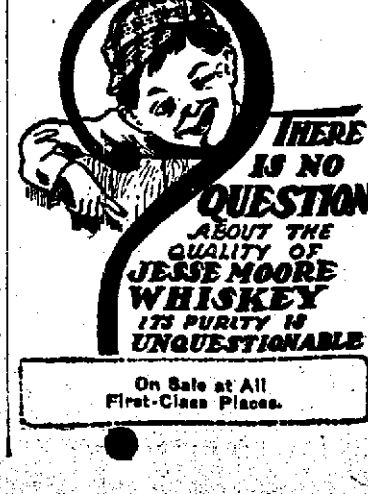

There was a great hall-inning. Old Van, who had permitted the northmen to go out in the lead by miffing a line drive in the seventh, started the fun with a triple to the center. To Kane tried to get the ball a low drive on the fly, hesitated, and then let it get through his legs to deep center, an easy stunner he pitched there. The score was tied when Blankenship threw badly to catch Van napping, the old man coming in from the outfield. One man had faded away meantime, but Dunneavy patted out a sharp single to left-center, and when it was booted around he sprinted to the middle sack. Right there the game almost went up in smoke, for when McDunneavy reached first base he was trying to reach third, thinking three were gone. When fans and coaches combined in requesting the left gardener to awaken the old man, he reached third ahead of the belated sphere.

With Kelley at the bat things looked ominous, as Dunneavy tried to reach base. He could hardly have made it alone, but Kelley took the occasion to land on the ball, driving it past Julie Strubel, who had started in to back up the catcher. "Dun" was safe and the game was won, with only two men gone.

BRITT-NELSON PICTURES.
The pictures of the Britt-Nelson contest will be presented at the Macdonough Theater for one week, commencing on Saturday, November 4th. These pictures, which show every detail of a battle which was one of the fiercest and most desperate in history, do not show anything hideous, sickening, brutal or disgusting. They show, in all the fair clearness of a California day, two superb young athletes, struggling gamely with muffled hands and stringent rules to govern. Women can see the Britt-Nelson fight, as herein displayed, from end and find not one thing to shock their sensibilities or unhinge their nerves. Mr. J. H. Coffroth, president of the Colma Athletic Club, where the fight occurred, is the owner of the copyrighted films.

SPEND THE WEEK END AT HOTEL DEL MONTE

At this season, Del Monte, with its soft, its oiled roads for automobile, and its many comfortable inns, and out is attracting many week end parties. The autumn and early winter months are the most beautiful of the year. Tickets between San Francisco and Del Monte, good Friday to Monday, including two new songs at the hotel, $10.

GREW MISS LEWIS' HAIR AND WE CAN PROVE IT

The Great Danderine Never Fails to Produce the Desired Results

MISS Lewis' hair was very thin and it was less than two feet in length when she began using Danderine. She says her hair and scalp are now fairly teeming with new life and vigor. That's the main secret of this great remedy's success as a hair grower. It enlivens, invigorates and fairly electrifies the hair glands and tissues of the scalp, causing unusual and unheard-of activity on the part of these two most important organs, resulting in a straggling and continuous growth of the hair.

The following is a reproduction of Miss Lewis' last letter:

Dear Doctor Knowlton:—
January 3, 1905.
You know I told you in my first letter that my hair would not reach much below my shoulders, and that all of it together only made one tiny braid.
I am sending you my photograph, which I had taken at Stevens Bros. It tells the whole story better than I can tell it.
Everybody I know is using Danderine, so you see I am doing something to show my appreciation.
Sincerely yours, (Miss) EVA LEWIS.

Danderine makes the scalp healthy and fertile and keeps it so. It is the greatest scalp fertilizer and therefore the greatest hair-producing remedy the world has ever known. It is a natural food and a wholesome medicine for both the hair and scalp. Even a 25c bottle of it will put more genuine life in your hair than a gallon of any other hair tonic ever made. It shows results from the very start.

NOW at all druggists in three sizes,
25 cents, 50 cents and $1. per bottle
FREE. To show how quickly Danderine acts we will send a large sample free to any one who sends this advertisement to the Knowlton Danderine Co., Chicago, with their name and address and 10 cents in silver or stamps to pay postage.

STABS GIRL HE LOVED

Handsome Melatio is Cut
Mercilessly by Lover.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—Alvin Gould, a handsome young mulatto, was stabbed yesterday afternoon, perhaps fatally, by Frank Jackson, her lover. Jackson has been employed by Dr. Bailey as a coachman for some time, and the instrument he used in his alleged effort to kill the girl was a surgeon's operating knife, which he probably took from Dr. Bailey's cabinet.

The young woman has seven wounds, two in the right forearm, one in each breast, one in the left hand and one in the abdomen. The last wound is the one that probably will prove fatal, as the blade penetrated well into the body.

TAKES HIS TRUNK. The assault was made in Miss Gould's room, which is No. 18 at 208 Post street. Jackson and the girl had been living together for about two years, but of late their course of love had not been smooth. Two weeks ago they had a violent quarrel, and the young man took his trunk down to room 7, Miss Gould, in telling her troubles to a friend, Miss Louise Payne, who lives just across the hall, said she would live with Jackson no more, because he was too mean and cruel.

FACES MURDERER. The dying girl was questioned by Attorney P. A. Costello of the District Attorney's office and made the following statement:

"I went to Jackson's room because he wanted me to mend his overcoat there. He cut me because I wasn't living with him any more. He was mad at me because I left him. It was three weeks ago I left him. I had been living with him three or four years. He tried to kill me once before. He tried to cut me with a razor because I wouldn't live with him."

Jackson, handcuffed and very self-possessed, was beside the bed while the girl spoke and she identified him as the man who had stabbed her. When asked if her statement was right, Jackson said no word, but coolly began to roll a cigarette. The girl was unable to sign her statement, but her name was dictated and certified to by Dr. Pinkham.

Nothing Decided ON JAPANESE LOAN LONDON, Nov. 2.—Mr. Takashi, the financial agent of Japan, answering an inquiry regarding the report that a Japanese loan of $20,000,000 would be placed before today, informed the Associated Press yesterday that nothing had yet been decided in regard to issuing a new loan.

MATERIAL INCREASE IN NAVY

Recommended by the General Board For Uncle Sam.

CHICAGO, November 2.—A dispatch to the Tribune from Washington says: A formidable yet necessary increase in the navy has been recommended by the General Board of which Admiral Dewey is president. It was learned yesterday that this body has asked the President and Secretary of the Navy to urge Congress to authorize the following ships during the coming session:

Three battleships of a displacement which will enable them to carry at least 12-inch breech-loading guns.
Six torpedo boats.
Four submarine torpedo boats.

In order to carry the number of guns proposed by the general board, the displacement authorized for the battleships must reach at least 18,000 tons. A recommendation has been made also that Congress increase the displacement of the battleships Idaho and Mississippi from 16,000 to 18,000 tons, in order that they may be equipped with a heavy battery of 12-inch guns, but it is not as certain that this recommendation will be made to Congress, because Chief Naval Constructor Casper has devised a plan for arming these vessels with eight weapons of the huge caliber desired. This will be double the number of 12-inch guns now carried on any ships in the navy.

In framing the report Admiral Dewey and the general board have applied the lessons of the Russo-Japanese war.

LETTER CAUSES TROUBLE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 2.—Official notice was received yesterday of the suspension of Cornelius Harnett, Council, No. 231, Royal Arcanum, by the Supreme Regent of the Order in the United States because of a recent circular letter promulgated by the local council protesting against the advanced insurance rates upon the order. The letter is construed as an act of "willful insubordination" and contempt of superior authority. The local council has over 150 members, some of whom have been policy holders for twenty-five years. The insurance is forced and vitiated by the Supreme Regent amounts to over $500,000. An appeal has been made for a withdrawal of this suspension.

TRACTION MAN IS PROMOTED

ELMHURST, November 2.—Geo. B. McHale, one of the men longest in the service of the Oakland Traction Consolidated and its predecessors, and recently delegate to the International Street Railway Employees' Union meeting at Chicago, was yesterday appointed by the O. T. Co. company assistant to division superintendent Hansen, at Elmhurst, with title of Inspector.

Mr. McHale is a native Californian, and has been twelve years in the service of the road. Through mastery of the work, unflinching courtesy to all, and a keen sense of fairness have led to his appointment, which would be approved with unanimity by the men were it put to them.

FAMINE OF MEAT FEARED

Conference of Burgomasters
Tells of Its Scarcity in Germany.

BERLIN, Nov. 2.—The North German Gazette publishes the report of a conference of Burgomasters of Berlin, Strassburg, Munich, Stuttgart and Karlsruhe with Prince von Buelow, the Imperial Chancellor, October 31, on the scarcity of meat throughout Germany. The Burgomasters urged the Chancellor to take steps to counteract the present scarcity, and the unusually high prices of meat. The Chancellor replied at length, asserting his profound conviction of the importance of agriculture for the welfare of all the people, and his firm determination to protect it from all dangers, but he expressed doubt as to whether the opening of the frontiers would result in the cheapening of meat.

Herr Karsch, Burgomaster of Berlin, suggested that the Chancellor issue an order immediately permitting the increase in the importation of Russian swine, provided for by the new commercial treaty with Russia.

The Burgomaster of Dresden urged the same course respecting imports of animals from Austria.

The Burgomaster of Munich presented the request of the Bavarian Government for the opening of the French frontier. Prince von Buelow concluded the interview by promising to give his attention to this important question.

PROTECTS VOTE OF NEGRO

CUMBERLAND, Md., Nov. 2.—Secretary of the Navy Charles J. Bonaparte, addressing a Republican rally here last night said among other things:

"Ring orators cry out because the negro votes, but the negro has now voted thirty-six years, and I have survived his voting so long, surely he will not ruin us if we make the time thirty-nine years or forty years. It is hard to say just what harm his voting has done unless it be that he has selected the ring itself to retain power by playing upon race prejudice, for whenever Democratic speakers or writers get to this point in the discussion they have spasmodic attacks of that terrible mental malady, 'Niggerphobia,' and begin to shriek and foam at the mouth, so that a straight-jacket and padded cell seem to be next in order."

DEATH PUZZLE THE POLICE

DETECTIVES NOW BELIEVE THAT MRS. TODD WAS NOT MURDERED.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—Philadelphia detectives who have been working on the Todd case since last Friday night say that they are unable to clear up the mystery as to how the woman met death. They are now strongly inclined to the belief that she met death accidentally on the railroad while temporarily deranged. It is their theory that Mrs. Todd wandered from the railroad station to Fairmount Park, became confused, walked along the railroad tracks and was struck by a train.

One of the essentials of the happy homes of to-day is a fund of information as to right living and the best methods of promoting health and happiness. With proper knowledge, each hour of recreation, of enjoyment and of effort may be made to contribute to that end and are of not less value than the using of the most wholesome foods and the selecting of the best medicinal agents when needed. With the well-informed, medicinal agents are used only when nature needs assistance, when bilious or constipated, has long been known, yet until within recent years it was necessary to resort to oils, salts, extracts of roots, barks and other cathartics which were found to be objectionable and to call for constantly increased quantities.

Then physicians having learned that the most excellent laxative and carminative principles were to be found in certain plants, principally in the leaves, the California Fig Syrup Co. discovered a method of obtaining such principles in their purest condition and of presenting them with pleasant and refreshing liquids in the form most acceptable to the system and the remedy became known as—Syrup of Figs—as figs were used, with the plants, in making it, because of their agreeable taste.

This excellent remedy is now rapidly coming into universal use as the best of family laxatives, because it is simple and wholesome and cleanses and sweetens the system effectually without disturbing the natural functions and without unpleasant after effects and its use may be discontinued when it is no longer required.

All who would enjoy good health and its blessings should remember that it is the one remedy which physicians and parents well-informed approve and recommend and use which they and their little ones alike enjoy, because of its pleasant flavor, its gentle action and its beneficial effects.

Syrup of Figs is for sale by all reliable druggists, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, in original packages only, having the name of the remedy—Syrup of Figs—and the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package.

A very short time ago a scientific investigating committee officially commissioned, made an independent investigation and analysis of the table wines of France and America. This is a remarkable tribute to the wine growing industry of Alameda county and it has led nearly all our prominent physicians to recommend the pure Gierberger wines for medicinal and family use.

WHEELER WOULD GET
LEGAL ADVICE

Milk Crusade Needs Help From University, But Law Must Be Complied With

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—President Benjamin Ide Wheeler of the University of California is now seeking legal advice as to the right of the University authorities to permit faculty experts to take part in the crusade against adulterated milk in San Francisco. The University professors will not begin work across the bay until this point is settled.

Prof. M. E. Jaffa and Dr. A. R. Ward are the two men whose services are desired by the San Francisco authorities. Jaffa is a noted food expert, and Dr. Ward's standing as a bacteriologist is of the highest. It is proposed that Jaffa and Ward conduct examinations of samples of milk sold in San Francisco, engaging their own assistants, unhampered by any influence.

Professor Jaffa said last evening: "I have not received official notice, either from the authorities of San Francisco or from President Wheeler, that I am to take part in the work of analyzing milk from San Francisco. President Wheeler, I understand, desires to have legal advice regarding the propriety of permitting University men to engage in this work of analysis under the conditions that prevail at this time. I do not know what legal points are involved and have made no inquiry about the matter. When President Wheeler authorizes me to take up the work wanted by San Francisco health people I will, of course do so."

"We are making milk tests right along here in our laboratory. Though for whom I do not care to say. What the results of the tests have been I am not now at liberty to disclose. If we work as desired for the supervisors of San Francisco the work will be done right here in this laboratory. The collecting of samples would be done by assistants, properly equipped. It would not be necessary for Dr. Ward or myself to work elsewhere than in the University laboratories."

President Wheeler said last night: "I do not understand perfectly just what is proposed to be done in this matter, nor just what is desired. I have not been officially notified regarding it. Knowing only what has been privately spoken to me and what I have read. The University men could not be expected to give their time to this work except as University work. I suppose such money as is to be contributed would be given to the University authorities to be utilized as seemed proper. Otherwise, I may say, that nothing probably would come of the matter."

"I do not know that legal advice would be necessary to guide us in dealing whatever question is brought up. When I am informed of what is wanted I will give it careful attention and until that time it is idle to discuss the matter so far as the University's part in it is concerned."

HAYWARD, Nov. 2.—Ramage & Stanton have recently sold three acres in the new subdivision of the Stanton ranch in Castro Valley to S. H. Stanton, formerly foreman of the Talbot ranch, at San Leandro, who is going to put up a nice house and barn.

Also seven and one-half acres in the Stanton ranch outside the subdivision to W. H. Clendinning of Oakland, who will also build a handsome home there.

The Swaine place, an eighteen-acre fruit ranch, in Castro Valley has been leased to C. H. Walker of Castro Valley, for one year.

DEGREE AND BANQUET.

FOOTBALL.

Married Women

Every woman covets a shapely, pretty figure, and many of them deplore the loss of their girlish forms after marriage. The bearing of children is often destructive to the mother's shapeliness. All of this can be avoided, however, by the use of Mother's Friend before baby comes, as this great liniment always prepares the body for the strain upon it, and preserves the symmetry of her form. Mother's Friend overcomes all the danger of child-birth, and carries the expectant mother safely through this critical period without pain. It is woman's greatest blessing. Thousands gratefully tell of the benefit and relief derived from the use of this wonderful remedy. Sold by all druggists at $1.00 per bottle. Our little book, telling all about this liniment, will be sent free.

LIGHTING BUSINESS
STREETS MEN MOVE

Property Owners To Get Together
Move Independently for Common Good

FRUITVALE, November 2.—That independent course for street lighting on which many Fruitvale people, under the lead of the Board of Trade, started out some time ago, has begun to materialize in effects. A light is to be placed this week at the corner of Fruitvale avenue and Tallant street, and the money has been raised by subscription, and is in hand, to maintain it there for one year. That was the report of the Lighting Committee at the meeting of the Board Tuesday evening.

HALLOWEEN.

The report is somewhat prevalent as far as Hayward that Halloween games at Fruitvale included the emptying of a house of its furniture. That's what comes of having a devious fire on Halloween night. The report is unfounded. The boys did no worse, so far as turned up yesterday, than to draw an outhouse to the middle of Seminary avenue at East Fourth street, and placard it "Comfortable House to Rent."

THE FIRE.

The fire in the cottage at the corner of Lloyd avenue and Bassett streets, an account of which appeared in yesterday's TRIBUNE, evidently began within the house, as the interior was "gutted" before the walls fell in.

MODERN WRECKERS.

When the British ship Umzumbi, a liner plying between England and South Africa, went on the rocks, off the west coast of France, a few weeks ago, her furnishings and cargo were looted by the inhabitants of the islands of Ushant and Benoit. Search was made on these islands for the stolen goods, but to no purpose. An inhabitant of Ushant explained the situation as follows: "When a ship is wrecked on these islands the robbers take what they can and bury it in the sand or hide it in some other way. They wait patiently till the hue and cry has ceased, and then go and unearth their barrels of wine, spirits and Madeira and the furniture they have stolen."

"Pillage of this kind is the principal resource of many of the islanders and the most bountiful harvest they could possibly reap. Not a wreck occurs on our coasts without these thieves hastening to the scene. Everything that they can find is turned to some account, whether it be watches, money, furniture or even sextants and chronometers. Since I came to live on the island I have seen ten wrecks stripped by these men and there are no police to stop them."

"Once a fortnight the police come with the mail packet and then you hear some shrill whistling, which is the islanders' method of telling one another to look out. The goods stolen from the Umzumbi will not see the light till three or four months hence. The reftaining of that vessel aroused great indignation among these honest people, who considered that once she was on the rocks she belonged absolutely to them."

A dead man is of as much use in the world as a lazy one and he takes up less room.

SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 2.—The following note has been sent to all the business men of this town:

FIREMEN'S BALL.

San Leandro firemen are looking forward to a jolly and well-patronized annual ball Saturday evening of this week, the proceeds of which will help to swell the fund which keeps the Fire Department in condition for effective work when it is needed.

PERSONAL.

Mr. and Mrs. Garibaldi have taken rooms in the Herrschberg block for the present.

HAPPINESS.

I followed far o'er heath and desert land
The fairy gleaming of a distant light;
A shining lure, that beckoned as a hand,
And with fair promise pierced the hostile night.

O'er rugged stones, and marsh, and slushy day,
And clinging tanglings of the thorny briar,
But still the dancing light shone far away,
And at my feet lay stagnant waste and mire.

Wearily I paused, and, turning in the Glances where the long, bleak, barren hills declined,
And lo! athwart the trailing, ragged wreath,
The wizard beacon glimmered far behind.

MAKING A CITY
Fruitvale Incorporation Meetings

FRUITVALE, November 2.—The joint meeting of committees, from the various improvement clubs at the room of the Fruitvale Board of Trade Wednesday evening, relative to the subject of incorporation of Fruitvale district, and possibly some adjacent districts into a city, developed two things:

Entire good will on the part of others toward those living between Sausal Creek and the Oakland line as to whether the latter concluded to come into the proposed incorporation, if finally decided upon, or whether they went into the city of Oakland; and a disposition to feel the way carefully as to the advisability of incorporation of territory outside the city into a separate municipality, so that whatever was finally settled upon should have a broad basis of fact and should be in accordance with the general wish of the people outside the city, so far as that could be ascertained beforehand.

For the purpose of obtaining facts on which the people generally make up their minds as to what might be best, a special committee was appointed, after general discussion, as follows:

OTools of Elmhurst, Flaherty of Alameda, Rosenthal of Laurel Grove, Brannon of High street, Harold of the Property Owners' Association, Merritt of Lockwood, Rhoda of Dimond.

And it was agreed that this committee, with any others interested who cared to be present, should meet at the Board of Trade rooms Wednesday evening, November 15.

J. J. O'Toole of Elmhurst was chairman and W. T. Grubb secretary of the meeting last evening.

It was recognized that there was an immense amount of work to be done before an intelligent basis could be had on which citizens could make up their minds.

PROTESTS AGAINST OIL IN ESTUARY

EDITOR TRIBUNE.—Dear sir: It is a violation of law to defile the waters of any stream in California, I would ask how it is that the Oakland estuary's navigable water is kept running full of a thick oily scum, vomited out by every oil-burning craft upon its waters, covering everything within its reach with a film that is damnable, and making one wish everything that commits this outrage were in the bottom of the bay. It is a fact that everything that uses oil and comes inside of the creek dumps the residue of oil into the water, and again, at possible time, on a flooded tide, so it can float up to and around San Leandro Bay, at its leisure, and return by the same route down the estuary to its mouth, and by the turn of tide return to the bay to cover everything within its reach with a tarry black film. This was its condition all day last Sunday, and we think the most of it came from a lot of oil dredgers, who are overhauling their outfits, preparatory to going into the pleasing and profitable task at the United States treasury's expense of pumping the dirt to make more land for the use of the Southern Pacific Railroad, and to the loss of Oakland, who should own this ground made by the United States Government, and to which the railroad has no legal claim. The estuary is a valuable adjunct to Oakland, as it is the only navigable approach to the city by all crafts.

How much of the water of the estuary on its banks laden with crafts of all kinds and its pretty fleet of white yachts lying across from Broadway on the Alameda shore, making a very pretty feature. But far and near it is known and spoken of as the dirtiest place on the bay. I asked some friends, who have yachts at Tiburon why they did not come over here for their winter quarters. "It is too dirty so they say," was the answer. It is injurious to the fish that would abound plentifully otherwise and poisonous to the clam that abounds on its banks, which have made many persons ill and around Oakland sick night and day, and all this in face of a law that reads: "Any person polluting the waters of streams shall be subject to a fine of $500 or imprisonment for a year, or both."

There are, or supposed to be, a commission paid by the State to see this enforced, but I suppose they are too busy watching some poor unfortunate who happens to catch an undersized fish at other times to pay any attention to rich corporations, who defy the law and its officers with impunity because they are rich. These things aggravate very much, and all are helping to bring down a strong hand in the future, that will make all men amenable to the law, and not permit privileges only to a class men.

Here, dear sir, that would ask much of you on your side and have some interest in your water life also, and so feel this curse upon its waters, and am ugly about it. Yours, etc.

H. J. WILLIAMS.

ON THE CAMPUS

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—A. C. Wright, University instructor in shop work, has recovered from a recent illness which necessitated a vacation for the last month and has resumed charge of his classes.

F. B. Reese, a University student, returned yesterday from Redding, where he has been for several days, assisting in the second of a series of examinations of a mine in Shasta county.

Ralph A. Fenton, a former University of California student, and a graduate of the University of Oregon, has been chosen by acclamation as president of the senior class in medicine at Northwestern University in Chicago.

CHORUS TO RENDER

MUSIC IN CHURCH

The chorus which has been rehearsing under the direction of Cuntin R. Morse will render a number of selections from Eljah, at the First Christian Church next Sunday evening. They will be assisted by a number of Berkeley's best singers, making a chorus of forty-five voices. Mr. Morse will sing the tenor solos from Eljah and Carolus Lundine the second tenor. The chorus will sing on the Coast, will sing "It is Enough." No admission will be charged but the collection taken will go for the benefit of the church music.

Alfalfa is an "antiquity." It was brought from Media in Persia in the time of Darius, afterward into Greece and Italy. "Medica" was its Persian. "Lucerne" its Italian, and "alfalfa" its Arabian name. Amphilochus, an agricultural writer of Athens, devoted almost an entire work to the culture of this valuable grass and the Roman writers were scarcely less enthusiastic on the subject.

WEST ENDERS MEET IN THE WIGWAM

Oakland Transit Roasted for Failure to Keep Its Promise

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—The regular meeting of the West Enders was held last evening in the Wigwam, there being a large attendance.

The Oakland Transit Company came in for a severe scoring by the members of the association. "They promised," said President Smith, "to give us better service if we would help them get the Oakland franchise. But it is the old story—many promises and little done. We need better service and must get it."

"Something should be done by the Trustees in this matter and the company be made to toe the mark." A communication was sent to the company asking when they would start the proposed improvements.

Adolph Hecker reported that the property-owners along Railroad avenue seemed favorable to the changing of the name of that avenue to Lincoln avenue. At the present time the owners of property, aggregating about 7000 feet, have signed the petition, and this petition will be presented to the Trustees at their next meeting.

Superintendent of Streets Frodden stated that he had seen Charles Neal, who has charge of the property that now stands in the way of opening up Webster street, and that Mr. Neal was not willing to give land to the city. He stated that Mr. Neal says that at the present time the owners of the property are willing to deliver their address, through, as it would interfere with their plans. It is intended that this strip of land be used for manufacturing purposes.

The club is making great plans for the opening of the Alameda mole, which is scheduled for the middle of November. There is to be a band to gladden the hearts of the musical and upstairs in the waiting room the different speakers of the evening will deliver their addresses. Governor Pardee, Senator Perkins, Benjamin Ide Wheeler and W. J. Gorman, president of the Alameda Trustees, will speak.

After the literary program dancing will be indulged in on the upper and lower floors of the new building. The ballroom is to be in attendance and will render a number of selections.

IMPROVERS MEET.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—The Central Improvement Club met last evening in Elmhurst Hall and discussed many matters of interest to the club.

A report was submitted by Secretary Lamborn outlining the idea of what the new charter should be. In the report he does away with many of the offices now in existence. He would do away with the office of treasurer entirely. The members of the club intend having a number of copies made of the proposed charter and will bring them to the notice of the Board of Trustees, which is to be held on the 10th of this month.

A communication is to be sent to the City Trustees asking them to take some action in the opening of the streets through the central section of town.

The members discussed at some length the advisability of having a park in that section of town. The next meeting of the club will be held on Monday night, when the members will be addressed by a number of prominent speakers on building associations.

NARROW ESCAPE.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—Charles Baum, son of Attorney Alexander Baum of this city, had a narrow escape from severe injury on Tuesday afternoon, when he was thrown from his trap on the Webster street roadway.

He was returning from Oakland and when nearing Alameda he saw a wagon coming along the road. He drove the horse to the right of the road, but the driver of the approaching wagon locked wheels and young Baum was thrown heavily to the ground. Without paying attention to the injured youth the driver quickened the speed of his horse and continued his journey to Oakland.

Young Baum was picked up a few minutes later and taken to his home. He was not badly hurt and is around today. The horse was almost completely destroyed by the collision.

MOORE SAYS NO.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—Claiming that he has the recommendation of Superintendent of Schools Fred Moore, a mandolin teacher is making the rounds of Alameda residences and getting pupils on this recommendation.

Superintendent Moore states that it is not the custom of the school board to sanction any such schemes, and says he has never seen the man.

MASS MEETING.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—November the 10th has been set as the date for the mass meeting at which plans will be formulated to hold an election and appoint a board of freeholders, who will draw up a new charter for the city of Alameda.

The meeting will be held in the Council Chamber of the City Hall at 3 o'clock p. m.

NEW POSTOFFICE.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—The new postoffice was to have been occupied yesterday, but owing to the uncertainty as to when the fixtures will arrive the officials are not able to say when the new office will be ready.

Miss Marion Jacobs, who has caused much delay by refusing to move from the house under her name, is now in new quarters, but the trustees of Elmhurst Lodge say that the refusal of Miss Jacobs to vacate the premises has in no way deterred the work.

BASKET-BALL GAME.

ALAMEDA, Nov. 2.—The girls' basketball team of Alameda High School played the team from the Girls' High School at the Porter School yesterday afternoon. The score at the end of the second half being 2 to 2.

This is the third game that the local team has played this term.

TO BOOM
BERKELEY

Chamber of Commerce Organized

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—At a meeting of representative citizens, held last evening in the Town Hall, definite action was taken toward the organization of a Chamber of Commerce, that action being the adoption of a constitution and the appointment of a committee of five to select the names of twenty-one men to act as directors of the newly-organized body.

These names will be presented at an adjourned meeting to be held tonight in the Town Hall. The committee appointed to select a list of eligibles for a board of directors included S. W. Wright, C. H. McGraw, Victor Robertson, R. C. Staats and Captain W. H. Marston. The names suggested by this committee will be presented at tonight's meeting when they will be voted upon.

J. W. Richards acted as chairman of the meeting and Clarence S. Morrill, secretary.

BERKELEY, Nov. 2.—Edgar Thomas the talented tenor of this city, and son of Mrs. J. M. Thomas of La Loma, and his wife (nee Higgins), together with the Fasmores, have arrived in Berlin, where young Thomas is now preparing to take an extensive course in music and vocal culture. The news of the safe arrival of the party in the German capital was received yesterday by Mrs. Thomas in a letter written shortly after landing.

Thomas wrote that they had had a most delightful but uneventful voyage across the Atlantic, sailing from Baltimore on September 27. In one of the famous liners, the Breslau. Several informal concerts were given on board the ship and the evenings were passed most pleasantly. Thomas stated that he had completed arrangements for taking piano, harmony and choral work and that he would for some time yet continue his vocal lessons under Fasmore. Later on the tour he will study with some of the best vocal instructors in Berlin who give him lessons.

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Thomas there are in the party, Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Fasmore and their talented daughters, Mary Beulah Fasmore, violinist

CLIPPINGS FROM TROLLEY TALK

MATTERS OF INTEREST TO TRACTION CONSOLIDATED EMPLOYEES.

Following are some clippings from the last issue of "Trolley Talk," published by the Oakland Traction Club:

The club orchestra is progressing very rapidly and continues to practice on Friday evening. Members desirous of enjoying a pleasant hour would do well to attend these recitals, which are exceedingly entertaining and refreshing.

A company is now being formed to acquire nineteen of the leading street car building companies in the United States and organize a new company with a capital of $1,000,000. The consolidation embraces nearly all of the plants engaged in the building of street cars in this country.

Chicago to New York by trolley is an innovation promised by William S. Reed, a builder of railroads. Mr. Reed has purchased the Chicago Electric Traction Company and has organized two other companies which will complete the gaps which now bar a continuous ride on electric roads between the cities named.

On September 27th Mr. Frank Fliege was married to Miss Loretta Deary of East Oakland. The marriage ceremony was performed at the residence of the bride's parents, where an elaborate wedding supper was served, after which the happy couple left amid showers of rice and good wishes.

News of the sudden death of Mr. George G. Wall on Wednesday, October 14th, was received with sincere regret by his many friends in the accounting department. While Mr. Wall was in his duties compelled to take a rest from his duties as received on account of ill-health, it was not considered of a serious nature and no one anticipated the end so near. He was thirty-six years of age, liberal and jovial in character, and one who was endeared by his associates in business and social circles. He was a member of the O. T. Club, and the first to pass from its membership roll through death.

The amount of water power utilized for electric energy is estimated to be 1,500,000 horse-power in round numbers. The United States uses the greatest amount, mainly on account of its using the power of Niagara Falls, which also comes second place in Canada. In the United States about 550,000 horse-power of electric energy is derived from water power in Canada 250,000, in Italy 200,000, in France 100,000, in Switzerland 125,000, in Germany 110,000, in Sweden 70,000, and in other countries lesser amounts. As these statistics are undoubtedly incomplete, the aggregate water-power utilized for electric energy in the world would probably be about 2,000,000 horse-power, which is about twice the steam power used in England and Ireland combined.

The following letter, received by Conductor H. A. Gray of the Hayward line from a lady passenger, fully explains its mission and deserves mention:

Dear Sir:—If your car account for Wednesday, the 27th, trip leaving Washington and Thirteenth streets about 1:15, is short, please let my account be the most likely place for the mistake. The conductor on one leaving Hayward about 5 o'clock obtained your name for me.

Yours Truly,

The honest intent exhibited by this passenger is one of rare occurrence and was thoroughly appreciated by the conductors on the Hayward line, who were apprised of the receipt of the letter.

PERSONAL.

Conductor Gray spent two days with his relatives in Fresno.

Conductor Reed, of the East Oakland Division, is enjoying a leave of absence.

Conductor McKenzie, who has been visiting relatives in Montreal, Canada, has started on his way home, and is expected to arrive in Oakland on or about the 1st of November.

Veteran Delke and Conductor Falkland have during the past month contributed many photographs for use in this publication. Trolley Talk extends thanks for same.

Mr. Fred Peru has again returned to the "front end" after having spent some time in the "back office." An interesting article on Oakland's taxes might be secured at some future date.

Mr. Sheffield, an employee of the Club, was married to Miss Alice Virginia Carey, at the residence of the bride's parents on Pacific avenue, Alameda, on Thursday evening, October 19. Trolley Talk wishes the young couple a long, happy and prosperous life.

George McHale and R. Scott, both of the Hayward division, returned recently, having attended the National Convention of the Street Carriers' Union held in San Francisco, California, where they were successful in having their division's cause made known to the world.

David Rand, of the accounting department, took a two weeks' vacation during the past month. No definite news as to his whereabouts could be ascertained further than that he was seen in an Oakland car on Friday, October 19. Mr. Rand will certainly enjoy his vacation.

50c. Bottle Free.

If you need Liquezone, and have never tried it, please send us this coupon. We will then mail you an order on a local druggist for a full-size bottle, and will pay the druggist's bill for you. This is our free gift, made to convince you, to let the product itself show you what it can do. In justice to yourself, please accept it today, for it places you under no obligations whatever.

Liquezone costs 50c and $1.

CUT OUT THIS COUPON.

Fill it out and mail it to The Liquezone Company, 455-461 Wabash Ave., Chicago.

My disease is.....

I have never tried Liquezone, but if you will supply me a 50c bottle free I will take it.

811 Give full address—write plainly.

Note that this offer applies to new users only.

Any physician or hospital not yet using Liquezone will be gladly supplied for a test.

A Test Will Tell

What Liquezone, Can Do for You--and It Is Free

You who are waiting—we ask you again to try Liquezone; to try it at our expense. You'll regret this delay when you learn what the product means to you.

Do as millions have done—stop doubting; give Liquezone a test. Then judge it by results. Germ diseases—and there are scores of them—call for a germicide. Those are the diseases to which Liquezone best applies. Don't cling blindly to old-time remedies, if you don't find them effective. Let us prove the power of the new.

What Liquezone Is.

The virtues of Liquezone are derived solely from gases. The formula is sent to each user. The process of making requires large apparatus, and from 8 to 14 days' time. It is directed by chemists of the highest class. The object is to so fix and combine the gases as to carry into the system a powerful tonic-germicide.

Contact with Liquezone kills any form of disease germ, because germs are of vegetable origin. Yet to the body Liquezone is not only harmless, but helpful in the extreme. That is its main distinction. Common germicides are poison when taken internally. That is why medicine has been so helpless in a germ disease. Liquezone is exhilarating, vitalizing, purifying; no disease germ can exist in it.

We purchased the American rights to Liquezone after thousands of tests had been made with it. Its power had been proved again and again, in the most difficult germ diseases. Then we offered to supply the first bottle free in every disease that required it. And over one million dollars have been spent to announce and fulfill this offer.

The result is that 11,000,000 bottles have been used, mostly in the past two years. Today there are countless cured ones, scattered everywhere, to tell what Liquezone has done.

But so many others need it that this offer is published still. In late years, science has traced scores of diseases to germ attacks. Old remedies do not apply to them. We wish to show those sick ones—at our cost—that Liquezone can do.

Where It Applies.

These are the diseases in which Liquezone has been most employed. In these it has earned its widest reputation. In all of these troubles we supply the first bottle free. And in all—no matter how difficult—offer each user a two months' further test without the risk of a penny.

GREAT PRESENT AND FUTURE OF ALAMEDA COUNTY

Tribute is Paid to City and Vicinity by the San Francisco Call.

The growth and progress of Oakland and the east side of the bay of San Francisco continue, apparently with increased momentum. Part of this is attributable to the safe and excellent ferry facilities. The three ferries of the Southern Pacific, reinforced by the Key Route, give a safe and excellent service, with a boat every twenty minutes, so that there is no long wait at either terminus. Added to the promptness and convenience of the ferries is their safety. The boats are of the best, and the drill and discipline of the crews cannot be improved upon. Even in the fogs which occur at some seasons, the system of running boats from one terminus only, and the reduction of speed to guard against craft crossing the ferry fairway, is so perfect, that only minor mishaps ever occur, and the ferry, instead of being an impediment to the settlement and growth of Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda, is a contributor thereto.

Business men and others prefer the trip on a ferry-boat to an equal mileage in a crowded car. The freedom of motion on the boat, the fresh air and the inspiring view of the bay and the mountains, prepare a man for the labors of the day, and are restful when they are over and he goes to his home. So there is an increasing tide of settlement on the east side of men who do business in San Francisco.

It must not be forgotten, however, that Oakland is becoming a great business center in her own right. Her harbor commerce is rapidly rising. She is taking the spill from San Francisco's overcrowded water front, and has her independent outlying and incoming trade, requiring more men to handle it and more merchants and commission men to manage it. That whole region, from Point Richmond to San Leandro Bay, is pulsating with local energy and enterprise. Last year, 1,200 new residences were built in Oakland alone. Each sheltering an average family, that means an addition of 6,000 to the population. The building goes on unchecked, the demand for building property increases. An examination of the real estate transfers in that city shows that practically all are for the purpose of improvement by building.

There is no speculative buying of real estate to hold for a rise. This implies the healthiest of conditions. Not many years ago, when the Macdonough Theater was built, we believe it was the first structure in Oakland that had more than three stories. Then followed the many-storied and massive office building of the Central Bank, and now the Union Savings Bank is in its own skyscraper, which will be followed by other metal framed companions.

The increase of population and business is shown by the demand for more school facilities, and new schoolhouses of the most modern style are planned and in construction, of such nobility of architecture as will not only ornament the city, but house the schools in proper conditions of sanitation, lighting and convenience.

It is no wonder that real estate and real estate dealers are on the jump. Oakland is getting an addition to her population and enterprise from the mines, ranches and forest industries of all the West. The residence attractions and school facilities draw the men who have gained a competence in the mines or in raising live stock. These are solid people. They are a wholesome increment to the population of a city.

In many instances the owners of large ranch tracts that have recently been supplied with irrigation in the valleys, and have been sold in small tracts to immigrants, have settled in Oakland. This is an interesting process. It increases at the same time the urban and rural population of the State. Large ranches that supported only a few families, subdivided support many, and the sellers go to Oakland, where the buyers stay on the land and by their product increase the commerce of the cities.

All the signs signify that San Francisco is to have a great commercial neighbor in Oakland, and that in Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda there will be settled a population that is destined to equal that of this city and in the future keep pace with it. This is a prospect to be encouraged and promoted by San Francisco. When our cities grow and prosper it is but a reflection of the growth and prosperity of the whole State. Cities are built by the plow and pruning knife. Grapes and fruit, grain and gold and cattle are transformed into brick and stone and mortar and metal. It is evident that Oakland, with all the east bay region, is getting a proper share of the results.

ROAM IN CURRENTS OF OCEAN

Casks Containing Messages are Finally Heard From.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 2.—At a meeting of the Geographical Society of Philadelphia last night, President Henry G. Bryant, the well known explorer, made the announcement that two of the Bryant-Melville casks which were sent adrift several years ago in the polar sea have turned up. It was suggested some years ago by Rear Admiral George W. Melville that valuable data concerning the speed and direction of Arctic currents might be obtained by setting adrift specially constructed casks in the Arctic Ocean. The society took up the subject and Admiral Melville and Mr. Bryant had fifty casks constructed which were thrown overboard by United States revenue cutters and whaling ships. Each cask was numbered and contained a message in four languages, requesting the finder to notify the Philadelphia society.

Mr. Bryant announced that he had just heard from two of the casks. The first was thrown overboard by the revenue cutter Bear on August 21st, 1891, about eighty-five miles northwest of Wrangel Island, and recovered by Captain A. G. Christianson on August 17, 1902, near the mouth of Koluching bay on the coast of Siberia. In the course of one year, less four days it had traveled 880 miles to the southeast and was probably influenced by local currents.

The other cask was placed on an ice floe northwest of Point Barrow, Alaska, in lat. 71° 53' N. and long. 164° 50' W. by the steam whaler Alexander on Sept. 13, 1899. It was recovered one mile east of Cape Baude-Nupur, on the northern coast of Iceland, June 7, 1905. Mr. Bryant said the position of the second cask proved the existence of a current from Bering straits around the circumpolar basis to the Arctic Ocean.

many years ago, when the Macdonough Theater was built, we believe it was the first structure in Oakland that had more than three stories. Then followed the many-storied and massive office building of the Central Bank, and now the Union Savings Bank is in its own skyscraper, which will be followed by other metal framed companions.

PRAYING THIEF IS CAUGHT

WOMAN EFFECTS CAPTURE OF A BOLD, BAD BURGLAR.

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Mrs. Mary Weston, of No. 3543 Indiana avenue, is a heroine in the eyes of her neighbors and the Stanton avenue police. She was the cause of the policeman capturing a "praying" burglar, identified as John Wells, of No. 3543 Indiana avenue. The prisoner was on his knees muttering an extemporaneous prayer when Sergeant Prendergast arrested him on the grass under Mrs. Weston's window.

Mrs. Weston was alone in the house when he was awakened by a strange noise in the dim light from the street she got a glimpse of a shadowy form at the side of her bed. She leaped from the opposite side of the bed, and, running to an open window, screamed for aid. By this time the intruder was at her side. He reached out his hands to choke back her cries, whispering hoarse commands for her to keep quiet at the peril of her life.

Believing the man would choke her to death if he got his fingers about her throat, Mrs. Weston dodged under his outstretched arms. In running past him her shoulder struck him in the chest.

Herb W. Edwards injured. Herb W. Edwards, of No. 707 Holmes, Iowa, got a full on an icy walk last winter, spraining his wrist and bruising his knees. The next day, he says, "they were so sore and stiff I was afraid I would have to stay in bed, but I rubbed them well with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications all soreness had disappeared. I feel that this bottle of Pain Balm saved me several days' time, to say nothing of the suffering." This balm is for sale by Osmond Bros., corner Twelfth and Washington streets and corner Seventh and Broadway.

NO RESTING PLACE FOR GENUS HOBO

CHICAGO, Nov. 2.—Only one-twentieth of the usual number of tramps and levee loafers are in Chicago to welcome the return of winter. The Salvation Army has collected figures that tell an astounding tale of the decrease of the "vag" population from 25,000 to 12,000 within a year. This decrease in that class of Chicago's population is the result of several causes. The attitude of Chief Collins toward vagrants is one reason why the "professional unemployed" have decided voluntarily or otherwise to move out of the city.

The imprisonment of a large number of vagrants has resulted in a hefting of the homeless. Word comes from all the small cities adjacent to Chicago that the "vags" are overrunning them. Those who have found themselves behind the bars and toward have been sent to the House of Correction have been examples for the levee loafers.

OVERHEARD AT BREAKFAST
